

THE NEW SABBATH LIBRARY

Price, 8 Cents per Copy, Postpaid to any Address.

THE MAKING OF MAJOR.

By Mrs. Frank Lee.

A bright, readable and intensely interesting book for boys and girls.

THE CROSS AND THE HAMMER.

By H. Bedford-Jones.

A story of great strength, fearful hardship, indomitable courage and loving devotion.

A FRIEND OF THE SEMINOLE.

By George Ethelbert Walsh.

The opening of the cypress swamps in southern Florida. The adventures of the two boy surveyors and their dealings with the superstitious Seminoles.

"A BOY AND A BOX."

By Mrs. Frank Lee.

While there is not a line or word in this book that could offend the most sensitive, it is a strong temperance story.

"THE MYSTERY AT CARROL RANCH."

By Carl Louis Kingsbury.

This is not a detective story, as its name might imply, but deals with the joys and sorrows, difficulties and adventures of a family of heroes and heroines.

THE YOUNG CAPTIVES.

By Erasmus W. Jones.

Describes the remarkable adventures of a coterie of young people in one of the most interesting periods of the world's history.

IN HER FATHER'S PLACE.

By Carl Louis Kingsbury.

This is a beautiful and fascinating story, portraying the noble life of a girl who has the courage to take her father's place.

TWENTY-FIVE STORIES.

By Twenty-five Authors.

This book is made up of twenty-five entertaining and pleasing stories from the pens of the best authors of the day.

ON THE MOUNTAIN TOP.

By Belle Kellogg Towne.

A stirring story of the mountains. Just the book for a Christmas gift. Not a dull line in it.

THE ISLE OF THE LAKE.

By Willard Goss.

A capital story of courageous adventure. There is life and action on every page. No tedious descriptions.

THE GIRL WARRIORS.

By Adene Williams.

This book for girls is most interesting and instructive, and cannot fail to attract much attention.

The New Sabbath Library is intended to meet the growing demand for pure literature at popular prices. The success of these issues has been unprecedented, and they have gained wide celebrity.

GOLD HUNTING IN ALASKA.

By Joseph Grinnell.

A story of the adventures of young gold-seekers in Alaska. It abounds in interesting information and is profusely illustrated.

BLACK ROCK.

By Ralph Connor.

Few books in modern times have proved so popular as "Black Rock." It is a grand temperance story, crisp, pathetic, spiritual, wholesome.

STEPPING HEAVENWARD.

By Elizabeth J. Prentiss.

This charming story has been a delight to thousands of readers, and translated into five languages.

ERIC'S VACATION.

Translated from the German.

This is an interesting story of a city boy who spends his vacation in a little fishing village on the Baltic Sea, where he has many new and exciting experiences.

THE DAYS OF ABD-EL-KADER.

Translated from the German.

This is a thrilling story of life in Algeria, and narrates the adventures of a captive boy and girl.

FOR THE SAKE OF A NAME.

By Elizabeth Grinnell.

A vivid description of life in the slums, in which is shown how near to each other are rich and poor if only a sympathetic interest fills each heart.

ROBERT HARDY'S SEVEN DAYS.

By Rev. Charles M. Sheldon.

The story of a man who was suddenly impressed with the feeling that he had but seven days to live. The question is possessed of endless interest.

THE TRANSFORMATION OF JOB.

By Frederick Vining Fisher.

The author has here narrated the adventures of an orphan boy among the miners of California.

IN HIS STEPS.

By Rev. Charles M. Sheldon.

An authorized edition of this world-famous book, and the finest and cheapest yet issued.

TI:

A STORY OF SAN FRANCISCO'S CHINATOWN.

By Mary E. Bamford.

Mrs. Bamford has been a close observer of the characteristics of Chinatown's people.

THE THRONE OF DAVID.

By Rev. J. H. Ingraham.

This is by many considered the best work of the great mind which originated it.

(CONTINUED ON THIRD PAGE COVER.)

00938280