

manager, under the Committee, who shall also visit such different parts of the Diocese as may be deemed advisable, on behalf of such Missions or Paper, and perform such other duties as may be assigned him by the Committee, relative to Church work.

“That a sum not exceeding —— dollars per annum be appropriated for his salary, to be provided from the funds of the Boards of Missions, and from the several funds of this Synod, in such proportion as the Executive Committee shall see fit. Should he be made Treasurer, bonds must be given in due proportion to the amount passing through his hands.”

Also—Regulations for the Discipline of the Clergy and Laity, standing over for confirmation.