HENRY DUDDING, RIBY GROVE, GREAT

GRIMSBY, LINCOLNSHIRE. has always for inspection and sale from the largest and most noted flock of pure Lincoln Longwool Sheep in the country, both Rams and Ewes of all ages. Representative specimens from this flock have secured for many years past at the Royal Shows champion and other prizes; whilst they have also at both the Paris Exhibitions, Vienna, Amsterdam, Chicago, Palermo, secured champion awards, and at all the leading shows in Australia, New Zealand, Canada, and the States.

Riby sheep and their descendants have secured the highest honors. Wool is a leading feature in the flock, its quality being amply testified by the fact that wherever exhibited it has each time secured the premium prize, including that at Windsor in 1899. The record of its careful breeding and consistent success is worldwide, and the present members of the flock are fully equal to any that have preceded them during the past 130 years in which it has been in existence, descending from father to son without dispersal. The flock holds the record for the highest price ram of 1898 (i. e., 1,000 gns.), and for the highest recorded average for an auction sale of fifty-two rams (i. e., £36 19s.) at the annual sale in July, 1898. A grand selection of yearling and other sheep on offer, sired by the most carefully selected sires obtainable, in which are contained all the best strains of the present day. Telegrams: "Dudding, Keelby."

J. E. CASSWELL, Laughton, Folkingham, Lincolnshire.

breeder of Lincoln Long-wooled Sheep, Flock No. 46. The flock was in the possession of the present owner's great-grandfather in 1785, and has descended direct from father to son without a single dispersion sale. J. E. Casswell made the highest average for 20 rams, at the "Annual Lincoln Ram Sale," 1895 and 1897. The 1896 rams were all sold for exportation. Ram and ewe hogs and shearlings for sale, also Shire horses, Shorthorns, and Dark Dorking fowls. Telegrams: "Casswell, Folkingham, Eng." Station: Bilingham, G. N. R.
