RHEUMATISM. From C. H. Reynolds, D.D.S., Strathroy

From C. H. Reynolds, D.D.S., Strathroy. DR. WILSON: Dear Sir, -- I pronounce the "Moliere Bath" the King of Baths that I know anything about. Until Irried it I hought the Turkish Bath was the predimitin bath, but yours out-ranks it far in securing more coplous per-spiration at hit the temperature, thus avoid-ing the sufficient the temperature, thus avoid-ing the sufficient to breathe while the Turk-shobling pure air to breathe while the Turk-ish obliges one to inhale other people's vile exhautions. The repeating alternations of heat and coid I consider the greatest single restorative next to clectricity, both of which your bath applies in the best manner possi-ble. DR. C. H. REYNOLDS. Strathroy, November 10th, 1879.

Strathroy, November 10th, 1879.
From W.M. ROBINSON, Civil Engineer, London, Ont.
Dear Sir, -1 take great pleasure in adding my name to the Testimonials already given in favor of the Moliere Bath. My experience in its use has proven it very desirable above others which I have tried for Chronic Rhen-matice. The pleasant condition of the system afterwards, without violent reaction, indi-cates its salutary influence. Without debili-tating it seems to rest and recuperate the body. Altogether I deem it a very valuable agent for the health and refreshment of en-feeded persons. WM. ROBINSON, London, Nov. 8th, 1879.
