

Book Steward's Department

The Rev. H. PICKARD, D.D., Book Steward. The Rev. T. W. SMITH, Assistant Book Steward.

All letters relating to the business of either the Book Room or the Wesleyan Newspaper Office, and all remittances of money for the Wesleyan as well as for the Book Room should be addressed to the Book Steward and not to the Editor.

But all books to be noticed, and all communications and advertisements designed for insertion in the Wesleyan, should be addressed to the Editor and not to the Book Steward.

INSTRUCTIONS AS TO REMITTING MONIES.— 1.—When sending money for subscribers, say whether old or new, and if new, write out their Post Office address plainly.

2.—See that your remittances are duly acknowledged, or delay of one or two weeks may be caused by the business of this office. After that inquire if they do not appear.

3.—Post Office Orders are always safe, and not very costly. Next to these is the security of registering letters. Money sent otherwise is at the risk of the sender.

THE TEMPERANCE REFORM AND ITS GREAT REFORMERS.

By Rev. W. H. DANIELS, M.A.—With an Introduction by Rev. Theo. L. Cuyler, D.D. This is a book which has for its FIELD one of the most spirited and successful of all modern assaults on the kingdom of darkness; for its AUTHOR one of the most successful historians of modern evangelism, whose former works have within the last three years reached an aggregate sale in this country and Great Britain of over 100,000 VOLUMES; for its PUBLISHERS, a house which makes as honest and saleable books as any in the whole subscription trade; for its PATRONS, all who are interested in, have suffered by, or are working to suppress, intemperance; and for its MISSION, the forwarding of the Kingdom of Christ by saving the souls and bodies of men.

THE STANDARD MOODY EDITION OF 1879.

50,000 COPIES OF PREVIOUS EDITIONS SOLD. World-wide Circulation, from Canada to the Gulf; from Newfoundland to Oregon and Australia. Moody: His Words, Work & Workers. By Rev. W. H. DANIELS, A.M.

THE QUESTION DRAWER.

This last section is one which has never been published in any of the volumes on Mr. Moody's work. It contains his oft-hand answers to showings of questions in that peculiar feature of the Christian work, the "Question Drawer." Some of Mr. Moody's suggestions are full of wit as well as of wisdom, and the choicest of them all have been collected.
