

WANT, SALE AND EXCHANGE

All advertisements under this heading will be charged for at the rate of $5.00 per word per insertion, no insertion given for the price of five.

This department will be made a special feature of The Guide from now on, and is designed to better serve the interests of our subscribers by furnishing space where they may make known their wants and get in touch with prospective buyers at a nominal cost. Under this heading will be inserted all miscellaneous advertising, such as Farms for Sale, or Wanted, Machinery, Help Wanted, Articles Wanted and For Sale, Auction Sales, etc.

In this column, as in every part of The Guide, any advertisement of a false or questionable character will not be accepted, but the space will be confined exclusively to the use of legitimate advertisers who seek help, or wish to buy, sell or exchange stock, machinery, etc. A condensed advertisement in The Grain Growers' Guide should be a business getter for you. Try it and be convinced.

REPRESENT US

We want a lady or gentleman at every post office to be agent for the only farm paper published, owned and edited by the farmers. It is the only official organ of the largest national buying and marketing organization of farmers, the American Society of Equity. First applicants have choice of territory. Exceptional proposition to Subscribers this month. Salary, commission and premium. Equity Farm Journal, Room 419, Indianapolis, Ind.

The Outcome

A human man, seeing an overladen horse, put his shoulder to the wheel; and the owner of the horse thanked him—but he loaded the horse more heavily next time, knowing he would be helped. A sympathetic man, seeing a boy drag a load of wood, helped him through the street. The father of the boy felt grateful to the man—but he told the boy he must bring bigger loads in future.

A public-spirited man improved the city, and the owners of the city lots passed a resolution of thanks to him—but they raised the prices of the lots.—Bolton Hall.

Modesty on the Bench

A certain prominent English jurist was transferred from the chancery court to the admiralty court rather unexpectedly. While conversant with English law to a surprising degree, this gentleman had spent little time in marine law and was rather dubious as to his ability to cope with the duties of his new office.

His colleagues, in recognition of the occasion, gave him a dinner, after which he was called upon for an address. He made a long and serious speech, which embraced about everything, from free trade to England's foreign policy. Then, pausing a moment, he glanced round the crowded room and said:

"Gentlemen, in closing, I can think of no better words than the lines of Tennyson:

"And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea."

Emergency Currency

The agitation for emergency currency promises to become very popular, not only because we all like currency but because we all have emergencies. But the particular kind of emergency currency that has been advocated in some quarters is not exactly what we want, for, by its provisions, the bankers will have all the currency while we shall still have our emergencies.

Crusty Uncle (who is weary of being asked again and again for pecuniary assistance): Why the dickens don't you go home to your father and get him to kill the fatted calf?

Young Hard-Up: He'd be a jolly sight more likely to kill the prodigal son.

Same Old Story

"How shall I break the news to my parents that I have failed in my exams?"

"Merely telegraph them: 'Examination over. Nothing new!'"

By Installments

"Do you really, really care so very much for me, darling?" she asked.

"Dud—dud—does a—dud—dud—dud—duck—cuc—cuc—care for water, sus—sweet? Indeed, I dud—dud—do, dud—dud—darling! You are the one pup—pup—priceless pup—pup—pearl among pup—pup—pearls, pup—pup—Polly! You are que—que—queen of my heart, dud—dud—darling! The pup—pup—power that bub—bub—bends me like a reed—at thy fuf—fuf—feet!"

And she apparently believed him.

Jack Says

That economy is the word used by our neighbor with reference to his stinginess.

That a wise woman will choose the "slow coach" in preference to the fast male.

That the woman who named her son Romeo did a quite unnecessary thing.

That a fool and his advice are soon parted.

That some one should urge the gossips to organize in favor of shorter hours.

Howard: She has a speed of one hundred words a minute.

Coward: Who? Your stenographer?

Howard: No; my wife.

Proper Spirit

"Do you really think it necessary to give Mrs. Bigwad anything on her birthday?"

"Yes, Harold, we really must. She remembered all our children at Christmas, and now the least we can do is to retaliate."—Puck.

Which Being Interpreted

Joseph was interpreting the dream of seven lean and seven fat kine.

"It means that the beef trust will charge top prices for both," he declared. Herewith they saw he was a prophet.

Didn't Care to Mention His Name

A colored woman presented herself the other day in an Equal Suffrage State at the place of registration to qualify for the casting of her vote upon the school question at the next election.

"With what political party do you affiliate?" inquired the clerk of the unaccustomed applicant, using the prescribed formula.

The dusky lady "blushed," all coyness and confusion. "Is I 'bleeged to answer that there question?"

"Certainly; the law requires it."

"Then," retreating in dismay, "I don't believe I'll vote, 'case I'd hate to have to mention the party's name. He's one of the nicest gent-mums in town."

Commercially Expressed

The exigencies of the occasion compelled the city editor to assign the young financial reporter to write the account of the ball. He was instructed to give particular attention to a description of the costumes of the ladies. The following excerpts from his report have been preserved:

"Miss Blimmers was the object of a good deal of flurry at the opening of the ball. Bidders were enthusiastic. She wore a spangled dress and was conspicuous during the season at about 187, preferred."

"Mrs. Marriem made her first appearance since her last divorce. She has been resting at the springs, and the reorganization sets her at par."

"Miss Newwun, in a simple white dress, was a tentative offering at the start, but within an hour jumped to $75. There was at that time a great scramble, but the lucky bidder who is said to have been planning a squeeze, was Mr. Dash."

"Miss Boldun wore a costume that was 40, 30 and 10 off."

Publicity Indeed

Every now and then publicity is advocated as a cure for some evil. No greater mistake was ever made. Publicity can do nothing. Take the traction situation in the average city, for instance. Everybody knows that the cars are unclean, that they are overcrowded, that they are cold in winter and warm in summer, and that the owners of the lines are rolling in wealth. There is publicity for you. No secret about it at all. We don't have to wait for the newspapers or magazines to come out to learn the situation. But publicity does nothing whatsoever. It is as quiescent as a southern policeman at a lynching.

Natural Advantages

A few hours after the very elaborate Christmas dinner little Marie was taken violently ill, and her cousin Elizabeth, who had been unhappy all day on account of Marie's prettier dress, was heard to whisper in an awed voice: "Marie's got the prettiest clothes, all right, but I've got the strongest stomach."

Ambiguity

Stella: I wouldn't marry the best man on earth.

Knicker: Have I asked you to?

"Edwin," said a young wife, noticing how heartily her husband was eating, "do I cook as well as your mother did?" "Once for all, Angelina," replied Edwin, as he stared at her through his monocle, "I beg you will remember that, although I may seem to be in reduced circumstances now, I come of an old and distinguished family. My mother was not a cook!"

BREEDERS' DIRECTORY

Cards under this heading will be inserted weekly at the rate of $4.00 per line, per year. No card accepted for less than six months, or less space than two lines.

Under this heading should appear the names of every breeder of Live Stock in the West. Buyers and Breeders everywhere, as you are well aware, are constantly on the look-out for additions to their herds or the exchange of some particular animal, and as The Guide is now recognized as the best market authority, and in every way the most reliable journal working in the interests of the West, nothing is more natural than for you to seek in its columns for the names of reliable men to deal with when buying stock.

Consider the easiness of the cost of carrying a card in this column compared with the results that are sure to follow, and make up your mind to send us your card today.
