FAREWELL TO DEPARTING PASTOR

Prior to his departure from Deemerton, Rev. Father J. G. Dehler, was made the recipient of the following addresses accompanied by handsome gifts. Father Dehler was beloved by one and all of his people, and he carries with him to his new field of labor at Chesley the well-earned affection of his parishioners at Deemerton.

Highly Esteemed Reverend Father: To-night we are gathered here to express to you our sentiments of respect and gratitude for your untiring care and your great interest in this congregation.

Now, when about to part, we realize more than ever, how much we owe you.

You were with us but a short time. Nevertheless, brief as that time was, you won our hearts, you made us realize our religious duties, you opened our eyes to great and holy truths, especially in your beautiful and inspiring sermons.

In a word, you accomplished in no small degree what every zealous shepherd aims to do for his flock: that is, you brought many souls nearer to God.

Our words of gratitude will be few, but they are heartfelt. We extend to you our warm thanks for your many sacrifices in our behalf.

We shall try to repay your kindness in fulfilling every call to duty, and by showing in our lives that we practise the lessons you have so earnestly taught us.

We feel that we can best express our deepest thoughts in a hearty, "May God reward you, Father!"

Accept then our gift as a token of appreciation of your faithful work in our midst.

Once more we repeat, "May God reward you, Father!" and may you enjoy good health, so that you may work for the salvation of souls for many years to come.

We remain as ever,
Your devoted parishioners of Deemerton

Dear Rev. Father: Our new school year has just reopened, and how happy we should be, if we could have you with us again. We have always felt that of all your parishioners we were favoured little ones.

Your visits to school were always a real joy to us, a pleasant change from our daily tasks. You taught us the truths of our religion and our duties to God and His Holy Church.

We know that we can prove our gratitude to you in the finest manner by practicing what you have so zealously taught us. Yes! We will always try to be true to our God as you have so often exhorted us.

We thank you most heartily, dear Rev. Father, for your kindly interest and we trust that you will still remember us in your prayers.

We beg you to accept our little mite of fervent prayers with our sincerest wishes for God's blessing on your labours.

Your grateful children of Deemerton

IN MEMORIAM

SCHICKLER—In loving memory of Joseph Schickler, whom God called away on Sept. 17th, 1925

Sad and sudden was the call
Of him so dearly loved by all,
His memory still is very dear,
So oft is shed the silent tear.

He bade no one a last farewell,
He said good-bye to none,
And when the evening shades have fallen

And we are all alone,
In our hearts there comes a longing,
If you only could come home.

Oh! this earth would be a heaven
Could we hear your voice again.

—Sadly missed by widow,
and children

Tom—Say, these flappers remind me of electrical fuse plugs.
John—How's that?
Tom—They're so darned shocking!

Y. P. L. NEWS

The Young People's League of the Mildmay United Church were royally entertained on Monday night, Sept. 20th, at the home of Mr. T. H. Jasper. The large crowd enjoyed themselves very much indeed, and appreciate greatly the interest shown toward the Society in its work.

On Monday next, Sept. 27, the meeting is in charge of the president. The topic for the evening is "Canadian Authors" and will be taken by Miss Elsie Jasper. This will be an introduction to the work of the Literary Committee which will take up the different groups of Canadian writers later on.

You don't want to miss anything. You are all welcome. We'll see you Monday night.

FAMILY RE-UNION HELD

One of those events that linger in the memory of the guests took place recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harry Shallow Lake, when a family re-union was held, the first of its kind in-lawns and members gathered together. The re-union was held on tables decorated with lovely garden flowers, and a fowl dinner was partaken by guests numbering twenty-three, including Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harrison and two sons of Shoultice; Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Kelly, son and daughter of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tedford and three sons of Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Duffy and daughter, Margaret, of Toronto, and other five children at home. A happy week-end was spent.
