Notes from White Rock, Trinity Bay

White Rock, T.B., Jan. 27.—The Committee of White Rock and nearby places of the Women's Patriotic Association held a very interesting concert in the F.P.U. Hall to raise money to purchase wool with which to knit soldiers' socks for the boys of the Newfoundland Regiment. The result of their efforts amounted to over $20.

Four new schooners building and rebuilding here this winter; tonnage, 220 tons. The well known builder, Mr. Josiah Frampton, is building two in one dock.

I regret to say we buried our oldest F.P.U. member, Mr. Moses Noseworthy, 72 years of age, of our Local Council here on Monday. The Union men paraded before the corps to the church and then to the grave side and sang the hymn, "Now the Glorious Task is O'er."—Com.

Women of Keel's Help Swell Funds of the W.P.A.

Some of the ladies at Keels have proved themselves very helpful and patriotic in this time of our national need. The ladies of C. E. W. A. suggested a move which was taken up energetically by ladies of both denominations at Keels, and a Patriotic Tea was held as the outcome, in the F.P.U. Hall on Friday, Jan. 14th, and which proved a great success. The people patronized the tea well, and were entertained in a sumptuous manner. After tea a dance was participated in, by a great number with enthusiasm. All were highly delighted with the good time they had.

Thanks are due to the F.P.U. at Keels who so kindly loaned their Hall for this purpose. The results were highly gratifying, as over $50 was obtained for the W.P.A. of Newfoundland.

Well done, ladies, may your help bring much comfort to our brave boys.

SAYS, GOD HASTEN THE DAY WHEN COAKER WILL RULE THE SHIP OF STATE.

(Editor Mail and Advocate)
Dear Sir,—Just a few words about our road board election which was held on Dec. 16, and resulted in the following being elected:—Pat Quinlan, Moses Rice, John Keough. We also held our first annual meeting and the officers elected are as follows:

Chairman—Pat Quinlan.
Deputy Chairman—John Keough.
Secretary—William J. Hatch.
Treasurer—Martin Keough.
Door Guard—Peter Rice.
There is one thing we must be thankful for and that is the work of our noble President. God hasten the day, Mr. President, when you shall be able to rule the ship of state. Go ahead Mr. Coaker with your noble work in doing your best to help out the poor of the city and fishermen of the country. Wishing Mr. Coaker and the F.P.U. all happiness.

TRUE UNION MAN.

WEDDING BELLS

(Editor of the Mail and Advocate.)
Dear Sir,—Please find space in your valuable paper—The Mail and Advocate—for a few words from Brookfield concerning a very pretty wedding which was solemnized by Rev. Moore on Jan. 20th, when Mr. Sturge, son of Mr. Basil Sturge and Miss Effie Carter, daughter of Mr. Peter Carter, both of Brookfield, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The bride was charmingly attired in a dress of cream muslin veiling with hat to match. After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the groom, where a sumptuous feast awaited them, after which a most enjoyable evening was spent. There was several selections on the gramophone which made the time go much better.

Mr. Ellis Kean acted in capacity of best man.
We wish the newly-wedded couple much joy and happiness through life.—I am, etc.,

Lance-Corp. Crossman, Now in England, Describes His Trip from Mudros

S. S. Britannic,
At Sea, Jan. 7th, 1916.
Dear Father and Mother.—We are going through the Bay of Biscay. It is 10 p.m. We expect to dock at Southampton to-morrow night. I am on board the largest British liner afloat, the S.S. Britannic. This is her maiden voyage. She is a new ship just off the stocks. She is now used as a Hospital Ship. There are now 4,500 sick and wounded on board. She is a four funnel boat and some size I can tell you. We left Mudros the day after New Year's Day and had a splendid voyage down the Mediterranean Sea. We passed Gibraltar last night at 9 p.m. She is certainly speeding along at a great rate. Well, I am five weeks now in bed. I had typhoid fever. My temperature was up 104 to 106 for four night. It suffered with dysentery three weeks before that. It was with this I was sent to Hospital and upon my arrival at the Hospital they discovered I also had typhoid fever. So that is how I am going back to England to pick up my lost strength. I will not be fit for the firing line for three months or more. Coming out of the firing line we had to cross in the open because of the water. The Turks pelted us with bullets, but luckily none of us were struck. I had nothing hot to drink from Thursday evening till Monday evening, when we were put on board the battleship Prince George. We were treated good on board of her plenty to eat and hot cocoa. Our troops have evacuated Smyrna Bay. I left a few days before. I heard Ed Barnes got wounded in the hip the day I left. I think I am going to be sent to Woolwich Hospital, that is just outside of London. When I am discharged from Hospital I will be getting a few weeks leave before returning to the depot. I expect to spend a few days in London and spend the remainder at Torquay. By that time I will be much stronger. After four weeks starving I am "able to eat like a horse" now. We get well supplied on board. This is Saturday, a beautiful day, the ship is pitching a little. She rolled some last night, got a little seasick. I have not been seasick. I was promoted to Lance-Corpl. in the trenches about the middle of November. Just docked at Southampton at 3 p.m. Sunday, after a fine run. Going ashore this evening. I was brought aboard on a stretcher, but, thank God, I am able to walk ashore. Will write from Hospital.

Your Loving Son,
BART.
