Big Cut in Votes Next Week!

Candidates will have to cash every possible promise this week if they expect to win. Each week candidates have been complaining to the Contest Department about not being able to cash their promises, and have been asking for more time. We have gone the limit—it is up to you, candidates, this week to win or lose. Those who expect to win have got to cash their promises if they expect to win. Excuses will never secure anybody an automobile. It takes votes to win. There is only one way to get them, and that is by securing subscriptions to The Daily Courier. This is no contest for the loafer—it is for live, energetic and popular men and women. Success will crown the efforts of the candidates who have the grit and determination to fight to the finish.

Success or Failure This Week

This is the critical week for every candidate. There are still plenty of subscriptions to be secured, and the candidate who is not strong enough to go out and get them will fall by the wayside. There is not a candidate in the entire contest who could not win if they would do their best. Get up this very minute, make up your mind you will win that grand prize Touring Car this week. Let this week be your banner week. You can if you are determined and do your best.

Candidates must have at least one club of four in order to get these votes. Read conditions in the contest story on another page.

Get Busy Stay Busy

Call your friends together, tell them you want to get enough votes to win the grand prize Auto, and you must have their assistance. United efforts will bring amazing results—do not blame anyone but your self if you are not in the land of plenty of votes next Saturday evening—do not be over-confident, for there is not a candidate in the contest to-day who has anywhere near enough votes to win the automobile. This is a great contest—the very best and strongest people in this part of Brantford are competing—it will be a great honor to win. Those who produce the greatest results this week are likely to be in the land of plenty of votes. Start right out this second, make up your mind you will be there.

LET THIS BE YOUR SLOGAN—"SUBSCRIPTIONS TO-DAY" OR BUST--AND YOU WILL WIN!
