

Kill Care With a Columbia -- $5 Cash

You don't have to own a hundred, fifty, or even ten dollars to get all the good music you need. $5 is enough to introduce the Famous GRAFONOLA to your home—and supply you with 24 selections as well.

It's a dandy — fine oak or mahogany finished case, strong silent motor, handsome effect throughout. Plays all lateral disc records and makes the most of their musical possibilities. Delivered at once to your home for $5 cash and

$5.00 Monthly

Until $45.00 is paid — which pays for your choice of any 12 double sided 85c. records as well. Hear it in our store, playing the music you like best. You are never urged to buy.

P. S. Wouldn't it be great to sit on the verandah this summer and listen to your GRAFONOLA

The flag at half mast over the Town Hall last week reminded the citizens of the regretted death of their Town Clerk.

The students of Acadia College and Academy have given further evidence of their loyalty and patriotism. While many from the ranks are fighting abroad those at home who have won prizes this year have donated the money for these prizes to the Military Y.M.C.A. and Red Cross work. The sum of $25.00 has been received by these societies in Wolfville toward the funds.

The morning service of the Baptist Church was held in College Hall. This is the last Sunday before the closing of the College and Academy.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. John's church was held at the residence of Mr. R. Creighton last Monday. There was an excellent attendance. In the absence of the President, Mrs. R. F. Dixon, Mrs. Laura Haliburton Moore presided. The rector opened the proceedings with the usual service and delivered a short address on the missionary work of the church in Canada. The following officers were then elected: President, Mrs. R. F. Dixon; 1st Vice Pres. Mrs. Moore; 2nd, Mrs. Faye Stewart; Secretary, Mrs. C. H. Borden; Treasurer, Mrs. A. Cowie; Dorcas Secretary, Mrs. John Collins; Superintendent of the Junior Auxiliary, Mrs. W. I. Black — Acadia.

On Friday evening in Citizens Hall at Port Williams a programme of lantern views will be presented by Rev. T. C. Mellor of Antville, Recruiting Officer for this County. The views will be illustrative of the buildings, vocational training and work undertaken in Nova Scotia and all the other Provinces, for returned wounded soldiers. The views show how magnificent is the work we are doing for our unfortunate soldiers who have done the best.
