The Wolfville cricket team played a league match at Windsor yesterday and lost by the score of 56 to 19. A detailed account will be given in next week's paper.

Norway House property, the former Summer residence of Sir Donald Smith, Pictou, was, by an overwhelming vote, afterwards made unanimous, chosen as the Odd Fellows' Home by Grand Lodge assembled at Truro last week. Truro, Bridgetown, Amherst, Wolfville and Windsor were in the running.

The Boy Scouts are enjoying their annual outing at their camp at Sunken Lake. Their departure by automobile on Monday morning created quite an excitement. So far they have been favored with fine weather. Scoutmaster Brown, Rev. G. W. Miller and Dr. Clarence Hemmeon are with the boys at the camp.

Arthur Griffith, president of the Dail Eireann, died on August 12th at Dublin, after an illness of only ten days of influenza. His illness was at no time considered to be of a serious nature until within a few hours of his death. Mr. Griffith was a man of marked ability and his death is a severe blow to Irish interests.

There is no time of the day when a cup of MORSE'S TEA doesn't taste good. Some people say their best cup is the first one they take in the early morning, others, the one they have at dinner. However, it does not at all matter when you have a cup of "MORSE'S" because you will always find it good tea.

Mr. T. L. Harvey brought to THE ACADIAN Wednesday a perfect apple of the 1921 harvest. It is of the "Red Stark" variety and was grown by Mr. Church Ward, of Kingston, and is remarkably well kept. Mr. Harvey informed us that he saw a half-barrel of equally good fruit at Mr. Ward's home on Tuesday.

The Middleton baseball team has won the championship of the Valley League for the third consecutive season. The play off was with Berwick, two games being played. The first game was played at Middleton last Friday and resulted in a win for the home team by the score of 7 to 1. Middleton again won Wednesday at Berwick, score 10 to 6.

The presentation of Florence Edna May's new play, "The Unloved Wife" at the Opera House on Tuesday evening, attracted a good-sized audience and was greatly enjoyed. Staged by the author and put on by a well balanced and clever cast of players the performance was one of the best that Wolfville theatre goers have had the pleasure of witnessing for a long time. Every part was well taken and thrilling and amusing situations abounded. In "The Unloved Wife" the endeavor of the author to present a charming plot with a clean and wholesome atmosphere is ingeniously conceived and most successfully carried out.

"Sir, I have no home," began the seely-looking man, "and—"

"No axes to pay, no rent, no coal bills, no worry over the rise in milk prices! Permit me to congratulate you."

"I have no job, and—"

"Lucky chap! No danger of being fired."

"But I am serious. I have no money, and—"

"No temptation to spend it foolishly on pie-bodied beggars. Why, you're a veritable child of fortune. God day!"

The hand that ought to rock the cradle is usually being another hand at bridge.

The wedding of R. F. Newcombe and Miss Jennie Cogswell on Wednesday at the home of L. N. Cogswell was quite the event of the season. The bridal party, the rich display of gifts, the beautiful flowers everywhere, the pretty dresses, the delicious luncheon served under the spreading maples on the lawn where a social hour was spent, and the perfect day made it an event long to be remembered. The auto in which the newly weds started on their trip came in for a generous share of attention and was a "thing of beauty" all right.

Friday evening previous to the wedding Miss Dorothy Illsley of Oak Terrace tendered the bride elect a shower. Refreshments were served on the lawn and a delightful evening spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vaughn and children motored to Truro on Tuesday to be the guests of relatives.

While there they drove through the Gaspereau Valley, Kentville, the Canards, and Blomidon vicinity. Miss Cassie Faulkner entertained a number of young friends on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Dorothy Lockhart, of Wolfville. Games, music and dancing were enjoyed with dainty refreshments.

The members of Institute enjoyed a literary treat on Thursday last when Rev. E. D. Webster, who with his wife are the guests of Mrs. Geo. Starr, favored the meeting with a talk on Drummond and his works. It was a delightful hour.

Mrs. Brady and Mrs. Sheean, of Boston, who are spending the summer in Wolfville were pleasantly surprised recently while driving in Gaspereau, near the hydro electric plant, to see a beautiful fawn with its doe cross the road a few yards ahead of their motor car. The deer, though somewhat startled, manifested no signs of fear beyond throwing up her head and continued on her way across the fields and into the woods.

JEWELLERS & OPTICIANS

PROVANDIE TO RETURN TO EUROPE

Wadsworth Provandie, the distinguished American Baritone has been offered three appearances at Albert Hall, London, England, together with an engagement with the celebrated Colonne Orchestra, Paris, during the coming season.

These engagements will mark the Baritone's first appearance in Europe since 1914. When asked if he would make an extended stay overseas Mr. Provandie thought it doubtful because of the chaotic conditions still obtaining in Italy where most of the Grand Opera companies start out, although he has a standing contract to sing leading roles under Impresario Ponzio, Milan.

should he care to do so.

During the greater part of last season Mr. Provandie devoted his time to teaching, counting among his pupils some of the best singers in the South.

Temporarily retiring from public singing gave him the opportunity of enlarging his repertoire preparatory to his appearances the coming season.

Mr. Provandie will still maintain his school with able assistants and it is possible he will devote some time also to making records for the Brunswick Phonograph Co.

Mr. Provandie and his talented wife, Marion Tufts Provandie, will again delight the people of Wolfville and vicinity at the Opera House, Aug. 21st.
