AN APPLICATION OF THE EAST

The members of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association who went east from the various provinces are indebted to the railways of Canada and to the citizens of the Maritime provinces for this splendid trip and entertainment. Words fail to express our feelings but we shall always listen to the cry of the east with a new appreciation and a new knowledge of conditions as seen with our own eyes.

This lends to the thought that in our reduction system almost no recognition has been given to the importance of travel as an instructor. How much better could the young student understand lessons in geography and history, taught in the classroom, if in addition to these lessons, the places could actually be visited. A trip across Canada for every student would be more sensible than some of the useless lessons over which weeks and weeks are wasted in the school—The Orilla (Ont.) Times.

There was introduced at a banquet given at Summerside, P. E. I. to the C. W. N. A. tourists on their recent trip through the Maritimes, a new flag suggested as a Canadian National flag. He requested that the Nova Scotia people make it public and aid in its adoption.

An exchange says:
A more eloquent address was given by Mr. J. LeRoy Holman, who introduced to the Press a National Memorial Flag, which he wished to have adopted as a memorial to the fallen Canadian soldiers. His idea was that many who could never be present at or participate in general memorials erected and celebrated at central points, could have the flag in their own homes, however remote, and on days such as Armistice Day could unfurl it as a memorial. Mr. Holman had secured a model which he displayed. In the upper corner is the Union Jack and the rest of the flag is composed of blue and white stripes, with a red border enclosing the whole. The nine blue stripes represent the nine provinces of the Dominion. There is a maple leaf and two red poppies in a group, the poppies being a recognition of the words in the poem by Col. McCrea, "In Flanders Fields."
