DEATH CHAIR.

Niagara Falls Murderer Guilty in the First Degree.

Stabbed Woman to Death With Pair of Scissors.

Lockport, June 18.—Joseph Nacco, of Niagara Falls, must pay the death penalty for the brutal murder of Mrs. Katy Dadi, of Niagara Falls. The Supreme Court jury, after being out twenty hours, reported at 10 o'clock this morning and announced that it had found Nacco guilty of murder in the first degree. The hanging throughout the night had been six and six between conviction in the first and second degrees.

Nacco was in the courtroom when the jury reported. Justice Emery summoned an interpreter and directed that Nacco be told the verdict. When he heard it, he seemed unconcerned. A new trial will be moved on Thursday, June 24th, when Nacco will be sentenced.

Nacco fell in love with Mrs. Katy Dadi at her home in Cortland; with him she ran away from her husband, coming to Niagara Falls where the pair set up a boarding-house. Nacco refused to work and quarrels followed. The woman ordered him from the house. He went. On January 15th he returned to the place and entering went after the woman with a pair of scissors. She grabbed a knife from the table to defend herself. As she ran to the door Nacco plunged the scissor blades into her back and then into her head. She fell dead with her three small children about her.

NO CLAIM.

Oneida Indians Ceded All Their Rights to N. Y. State.

Albany, N. Y., June 12.—In March last certain members of the Oneida tribe of Indians said to now reside in Canada, interviewed Gov. Hughes in regard to alleged claims against the state of New York in reference to the use and occupancy of lands in which the Oneidas claim they still have an interest. In the year 1785 the state made a treaty with the Oneidas by which the Oneidas ceded all their lands to the state but reserved a large tract for themselves and their posterity in the counties of Oneida and Madison.

Attorney-General O'Malley stated that after a thorough examination he has come to the conclusion that in a treaty of Sept. 15th, 1795, the Oneida tribe ceded and conveyed to the state all their rights in the lands "or the shore of Oneida land."

A BURGLAR'S LAIR.

Port Arthur Police Given a Hot Reception.

Port Arthur, June 18.—A pitched battle between police and burglars ensued this morning, when Serg. Fenn and Constables Thurlow and Symens went down the shore eight miles to hunt out the resort of a gang who have lately been operating in the two cities, and made a number of hauls. The gang scented the approach of the officers, and fled along the shore, after emptying their revolvers at the police. The police returned the fire. None of the officers were hurt, but it is not known whether any of the gang were wounded.

The police found a large quantity of burglars' tools, dynamite and all kinds of goods, supposed to have been stolen, which they brought back to the city. A posse will be sent down by rail to look for the men, who in the meantime have refused permission to board any trains should they be passing.

ST. GILES.

Phenomenal Growth of This Church In One Year.

One year ago to-morrow the first services were held by St. Giles' congregation. On that occasion the Rev. R. B. Cochrane, M. A., of Woodstock, preached in the tent. The congregation has now grown until it has about two hundred members, and a regular attendance at the services of from four to six hundred. The pulpit will be occupied to-morrow by the Rev. A. P. MacGillivray, M. A., of Vancouver. Mr. MacGillivray was the former pastor of St. James' church, London. He is a gifted preacher and large congregations are sure to attend St. Giles' to-morrow. The present auditorium is capable of seating over seven hundred people. The musical service will be:
