

EMIGRATION AND AGRICULTURE.

ARTIC. EXPLORATION. Fresh interest has recently been awakened in England respecting the mysterious fate of the Franklin expedition.

TO THE COUNCILLORS.

Now that Mr. Loggie and Mr. McLaughlin has been elected our Councillors, they should endeavor to make themselves acquainted with the requirements of the town.

GOLDWIN SMITH ON CANADIAN PROTECTION, A ZOLLVEREIN.

In the paper read by Professor Goldwin Smith, as President of the Economy and Trade Department of the Social Science Congress in Dublin, we find the following:

will be careful of my fingers, and avoiding theories, confine myself to one or two facts. With regard to the new Canadian tariff, I must say here what I have said elsewhere—it was a measure of fiscal necessity.

IN MEMORIAM.

It becomes our painful duty to record the death of Mrs. JANE K. FOWLER, beloved wife of George Fowler, Esq., Councillor for Hardwick, which took place on Saturday, 22d ult., under painful circumstances.

On the reception of a despatch from the doctor, her husband—leaving his unburied son—hastened to St. John with the hope of seeing her once more before her death, but he was too late, and could only perform the painful duty of bringing her remains to her former home, from which they were removed the following day to their final resting place.

An able statistician, quoted by the New York Times, has just produced a series of comparisons between the commerce, the railroads, the shipping, tonnage, and carrying power of the world, and compares the work accomplished in 1850 with that of 1880.

COMMERCE OF THE UNITED STATES.

A return issued by the Bureau of Statistics at Washington, gives the foreign commerce of the United States for September, 1881, corrected to October 26. The excess of exports for the twelve months ended September 30th, was $240,270,615, compared with $163,857,618 for the corresponding twelve months of the previous year.
