School Entertainment.

The pupils of the Upper Primary School gave an attractive and highly interesting entertainment in the Opera House, Friday night. The evening's performance commenced with a "Gill of Natterpe." This was a drill song through the school.

The play showed the difficulties of a young "school nurse" had to contend against in her dealings with paragonous and mischievous children.

The drama was of most absorbing interest and was interspersed with humorous incidents and songs.

All the performers acted their parts well. Mr. T. Goodwin who acted Mr. Underfoot is one of the best comedians we have seen on a stage for a long time.

Mr. Goodwin's performance was most successful. He was very funny and his impersonation of Mr. Underfoot was most successful.

Private History of the Fair.

We are pleased to learn that the World's Columbian Exposition Illustrations received the Highest and Only Award of the money national and complete Illustrated History of the Great World's Fair.

This valuable work contains full descriptions of the Fair with 3,000 large, copper-plate half-tone photographic illustrations of the Grounds, Buildings, Exhibits and attractions of the Exposition.

The illustrations are arranged in a series of 100 pages, showing the labor of the Fair from the first shovel full of earth when the great Fair was begun, and the progress of the Exposition Grounds and Buildings in all stages of construction from the swamp covered with brush and trees to the world-famed "White City," filled with thousands of Art and works of genius from the stores-houses of the world, and adorned with its Splendid, Towers and Glorious Domes.

In all it is the richest and most valuable work ever published. It is the World's Fair on paper. By sending in your name you can have this valuable work in your possession in a few days.

It is not "slow" but simple. You need not know any story when you buy, so do good ones. Buy those that have sold for years past. They are CATERERS.

Send for our Free Catalogue for 1894. Ready 10th March.
