The first game was a surprise to all but to the players and most rabid supporters of the Cubs and it may be said without fear of contradiction that this was a popular win. The Wanderers, however, steadfastly held every bit of the ground and the game was interspersed with frequent kicks at some of the "un-pitchal" decisions, and the Hartnett crew have yet to be convinced that Umpire Chessman's interpretation of certain plays is correct. It was quite unusual, too, to see the veterans wrangling with Mr. Chessman, as ordinarily they have no occasion for so doing—it is generally their opponents who are obliged to do the protesting. The game was a change was quite refreshing—even if some new deals were handed out. For the victors, Orr was the star, and his timely hitting in pinches was the feature of the game, though Harvey Thomas also proved himself to be the boy in the gap. St. John was the baseman, got in some clever work, but he gets his foot off the bag too quickly after getting the throw, which resulted in their losing a couple of the blue and whites. For the Wanderers King pitched well but seemed a bit worried over the umpire's decisions. Tim's stick failed to work yesterday, all his life being feeble, and he failed to beat the throw to first at any time. Mgr. Clouston, (whose brilliant catching has been a revelation all season) is quite optimistic with the Pennant in sight as they have only to meet the Red Lions on Wednesday next to complete their schedule. At present the Cubs and Wanderers are tied in points with one game each to play. The fans were expecting a spirited clash between the B. I. S. and Red Lions but their hopes were shattered when in the first two innings the Hiltz crew got 5 runs to the Irishmen's 1. It was clearly evident that the Lions were in the fettle after putting it over the Wanderers the week previous, while the B. I. S. seemed to be on edge as their fielding was wretched and in addition they ably sustained their last year's reputation as "Hitless Wanderers." Carew pitched well but needs an experienced battery-mate to hold his assortment. Doyle, playing third for the Irish, showed remarkable dexterity for tagging propensities and saved his team from a more overwhelming defeat. Ring also played his usual cool game on the initial sack. The star, however, was Conney of the Lions. Here, there, and everywhere with his hit like a steamboat, Irishmen's efforts to reach the first sack were futile. He played the whole infield with skill and cunning, and in next Wednesday's game the Cubs will have to go some to master him.

GAMES YET TO PLAY.

Cubs vs. Red Lions.
B. I. S. vs. Wanderers.
This will mean a double header for next Wednesday afternoon and will also mean the most exciting baseball yet played in Newfoundland, as both the Cubs and Wanderers have to win their clashes to play off for the 1916 Pennant and Allen Cup, while if both should lose it will mean that the B. I. S., Red Lions, Cubs and Wanderers will all be trying in vain to reach the knockout schedule will have to be drawn up and played to decide the Championship. All four teams are therefore determined to be in the running, and between this and Wednesday afternoon some hard practice and teamwork will be required. The Irishmen, got in some clever work, but he gets his foot off the bag too quickly after getting the throw, which re-

War News

Editor Evening Telegram:
Dear Sir—Would you allow space in your valuable paper to say a few words and ask a few questions? I am a stranger here, and what seems very strange to me is: there is a Government Telegraph Office here, and I did not see one item of public news published for days. This is war time and surely if the folks at the postal office are not interested in war they should allow that the other residents of the place would be; they ought to consider they are receiving the public money for publishing public news and are the servants of the public, and are not let some other person that would do what they are paid for and won't.

Where are the members for this place, anyhow? They say they are the People's Party men and friends of the fishermen, and is this the way they are allowing the fishermen to be served? It is as well to be in the Arctic regions as far as public news goes as here. As far as I can understand the members are aware of this thing and for reasons of their own wink at it, as blood is thicker than water; but when they want the public vote again they may be asked to render an account of how they allowed the people to be served. The inhabitants are as eager for war news as ever I saw, and are ways asking strangers for it, and they say they never get public news only when they receive the papers, which is only three times a week. I say it's a shame for any people to be treated in such a manner by those they are not asking to do it for nothing but paying them well. Now, sir, I will say this much about the representative of Trepassy: if he is aware of this treatment the people are receiving he ought to be ashamed of himself, if he was capable of feeling any shame for allowing those conditions to exist and should not be allowed to be so a minute longer. Hoping I am not trespassing, I remain, yours truly,
A VISITOR.

"Joy is upon the lonely seas
When Indian forests pour
Forth to the billows and the breeze
Their odors from the shore.
Joy when the soft air's fanning sigh
Bears on the breeze of Araby."
These lines from a poetess whom our grandmothers as women, and our mothers as girls, read in early and mid-Victorian times, came up before me as one caught a whiff of perfume from a burning pastille which rendered the air around pleasantly odoriferous. Enquiry showed that, sure enough, these pastilles were named most appropriately, "Pastilles of Araby." They are about the nicest thing of the kind we have met. A single pastille is sufficient to destroy all unpleasant odors in a room, and render the air fresh and pleasant, and a really aromatic odor in it. Price 35c. a tin.

Hr. Grace Notes.

Mr. Thomas Sheppard, is in town on a business trip. Tom is a Harbour Gracian, one that has worked his way up to his present responsible position. May his visit to the home town be profitable and pleasant.

New potatoes of excellent quality are selling in town now at 15c. per gallon, rather cheaper than usual at this season.

Potato canker is very much in evidence again this year, but mostly among the potatoes known as Blue Noses. It is said the Dakota Reds and other red potatoes have nothing to do with canker. If this be so the people should be made acquainted with that fact, and every blue nose should be driven out of the country (of course we mean blue nose potatoes).

Mr. John Farmer who returned here from Buffalo a couple of months ago, with his wife and family, is now at Sydney, where he has secured a good position at his trade, that of machinist. He likes Sydney and the work. It is likely his family will join him there this fall.

Mr. Wesley Parsons and his bride arrived by train from the West Coast on Thursday night. We take this opportunity of wishing the popular young teacher and his bride a long and pleasant journey through life together.

Master Frank Gordon returned from St. John's on Monday night after spending several weeks with his aunt and uncle, Mrs. and Mr. Geo. Snow, of Colonial Street. His sister Elizabeth who accompanied him to the city will remain a week or so longer.

Herring are very plentiful in this harbor at present and are doing well.ermen who have nets out are doing well.

Mr. A. J. Goodland, teacher of the C. of E. High School, with his wife and children returned a few days ago from a very pleasant holiday trip to several northern ports.

Drs. Strapp and Cron have their hands full these days, as new cases of measles are developing every day, and it looks as if very few of the children here will escape the measles this year. Several adults were also forced to stay abed and nurse this very unwelcome visitor.

There is much talk here of the letter signed "Progress," written at Western Bay and appearing in the Daily News in July. In that letter we are all very much interested, and it would be worth the while to study well that letter. The writer very clearly shows how the train hands having a shorter day would benefit greatly by the change. The travelling public would benefit by arriving in St. John's a couple of hours earlier than it would be now. It is a pity that by making Harbor Grace the terminus for the North Shore Branch, instead of Carbonear, the plan could be easily worked out. In condensed form it is as follows:—Train leaving St. John's at 8:45 a.m. would arrive at Harbor Grace at 1:30 p.m. By connecting at Harbor Grace with the North Shore Branch, the train could leave for St. John's at 2:45 p.m. instead of 4:30 p.m. as at present, arriving at the city at 7:25 p.m. instead of the present late hour. Arriving at St. John's two hours earlier than at present would benefit every passenger, particularly the often worn out railway men. The well written plan of "Progress" should be more talked and a great deal more written about by people who can see the benefits to be derived from the change. Harbor Grace would have no objection whatever to making the railway terminus here.

Wedding Bells.
A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Joseph's Rectory, Signal Hill Road, on the 17th inst., the contracting parties being Miss Mary Power, housekeeper with Rev. W. Kitchen, D.P., and Mr. Philip Jackman, third officer of the s.s. Stephano. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Kitchen. The bride was attended by Miss Agnes Maher, Private Francis Power (1st Nfld. Regiment) brother of the bride, was best man. The groom's present to the bride was a gold necklace, to the bride a gold ring set in rubies and to the best man a gold stick pin. Following the ceremony a reception was held at Smithville, only the immediate friends being present. The bride, who is a very popular young lady, was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents. The Telegram joins in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Jackman, who have made their future home at 3 Knight Street, a happy voyage over the matrimonial sea.

Stephano Here With 150 Passengers.

PATRIOTIC CONCERT ON BOARD.

The Red Cross Liner Stephano, Capt. Smith, arrived here at 10:30 a.m. today from New York and Halifax, bringing a full cargo. Delay was longer at Halifax than usual, owing to the big freight offering. From there the run to port was made in 40 hours. She brought 150 passengers, including 93 round-trippers. The following saloon passengers got off here. From New York—P. G. Butler, Theo. Thompson, A. J. Murray, Miss S. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Goldstone, Mr. and Mrs. C. Evans, J. Shaw and J. Lamb, Rev. J. S. Shesley, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hodder, C. Birdseye, W. Bishop, J. Woldridge, J. T. Gallagher, W. G. Moore, S. Ross, and 9 in second cabin. From Halifax—A. Brazil, J. L. Scott, Miss P. Baird, H. A. Innis, N. R. Cooper, W. J. Brown, H. Courard, Mrs. J. H. Paton, J. D. Dunn, R. W. Fadden, T. McKee, A. S. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McCoubrey, W. Neal, and 11 second cabin.

Last night a patriotic concert was held on board in aid of one of our Patriotic Funds, and $27 was realized. The programme was as follows:—1. Save the King, 2. Overture, 3. Selections from Faust, 4. Stephen's Orchestra, 5. Character Ballads, Selected, 6. Mr. Samuel Rose, 7. Monologue, Selected, 8. N. H. Guy, 9. Dances of Bygone Days, Gavotte, Miss Margaret Smith and Miss A. Daly, 10. Recitation, Selected, "Rev. J. S. Shesley, C.M.", 11. Canadian War Song, kept the Home Fires Burning, "Baldomero Nieto", 12. Baritone Solos, Irish, "Martin A. O'Brien" (The Old Reliable), 13. Modern Dances, Rendition, Classical, "Miss Laura Parker and Mr. W. J. Young", 14. Mezzo Soprano, Selected, "Miss E. O. Hansen", 15. Impressionistic Sketches of Notable Personalities, "Miss May Smith", 16. Finale, America, "Ensemble."

Garden Party.

Skilful organization and preparation, many willing hands, delightful surroundings and perfect weather conditions combined to make the great Garden Party at Silverton yesterday afternoon one of the most successful of its kind ever held here. The large crowd of holiday makers were out to enjoy themselves; the material was at hand, and they took advantage of it with a care-free spirit and a generous hand. Beautiful in themselves, the grounds were lent an added beauty by the tasteful arrangement of bunting, flowers, tents and stalls and all the in apparel of a festive day. Many of the visitors found enjoyment in the mere pleasure of rambling under trees and over lawns and in the glorious prospect from the steep hillside. But this was not because there was no other attraction. Sports of all kinds, original and varied, were on foot. Many of the participants and onlookers alike, The Shoot-the-Shute was crowded from the moment the first venturesous passenger allowed himself to be hoisted (it was hoisted) to be shot at lightning speed down the "facilis descensus." A close rival was the Can't Lose Competition, for a sufficiently obvious reason. There was also a Punch and Judy show, putting and croquet competitions, fortune-telling, potato and blindfold races, coconut shies, stepping stones—in fact, all the fun of the fair. Tables loaded with candies, fruit, ice-creams and other refreshments did their best to cater to overwhelming demands. The C. L. B. Band played popular and pretty airs throughout the afternoon, and a ventriloquist, entertainment and display of war trophies were added attractions. The amount realized, $1,083.00, is a gratifying reward for the expenditure of much labor and thought. Sir Joseph and Lady Outerbridge deserve the greatest thanks for putting their charming premises at the disposal of the good cause, and its success will be gratifying to them. Too much appreciation, also, cannot be expressed of the efforts of the many ladies who helped at tables and in other ways. The affair adds one more to the successful endeavours of the Daughters of Empire and the money will be an invaluable contribution to the comfort and assistance of our boys on the other side.

Amusements.

AT THE CRESCENT.

A Diamond special three reel feature heads the list at the Crescent Picture Palace to-day. "The Love of Loti" is a beautiful and touching Japanese story produced by the Selig Company. Henry B. Waltham's Lillian Gish are presented in a strong Biograph drama, "The Burglar's Dilemma" or "The Abuse of the Third Degree." The "Fable of the Grass Widow and the Mesmeric and the Six Dollars" is one of George Ade's clever comedies, produced by the Essanay Company. The musical programme arranged and played by Professor McCarthy is a feature of this great show.

GRAND PROGRAMME AT THE NICKEL.

Immense audiences attended the performance at the Nickel Theatre yesterday afternoon and last evening and were delighted with the performance. The programme was made up of high class pictures, all being acted by celebrated artists. The Vitaphone blue ribbon feature film in five acts "Hearts and the Highway" is one of the finest subjects ever shown in this city. The social drama, "The Man he used to be" was also a very beautiful subject and was very closely followed. This evening the programme was repeated. A number of forty films the best to be procured, are now shown at the Nickel.
