

Filling the Gaps.

The Regimental Recruiting Roster.

"THE FOOL."
(By Robert W. Service.)
"It isn't playing the game," he said,
And I slammed his books away;
And Latin and Greek I've got in my head Will do for a commoner day."
"I cried, "The bugle's call Isn't for Latin from school?"
"Oh, no," he said, "I think he would listen? Oh, no at all!"
So I called him a fool, a fool.

And I called him a fool! . . . how blind was I!
Oh, the cup of my grief's abrim!
Oh, the glory of love in his heart.
And though there's never a grave to his eyes
His was the proudest part.
He died with the glory of faith in his eyes
And the glory of love in his heart.
Nor a cross to mark his fall, Thank God! we know that he "bated his eyes."
In the last great game of all!

The Gap

There's a gap by the side of the 39th Where the Newfoundlanders stood And met the might of the charging Hun.
When the trench ran deep in blood, Firm as the cliffs of their native isle Breasts the Atlantic's flood.

There's a gap by the side of the 39th
Where the Newfoundlanders fell—
The future bard of their bravery Shall many a story tell And hearts shall thrill as the tale is Told
Of the glory they won so well.

But the need is NOW of the strong man's heart,
Sturdy of soul and thew; Triumphant blood of the young man's veins
To his sire's traditions true;
And the spirit that courts the task that none
But the fearless brave may do.

There's a gap by the side of the 39th
And 'tis calling across the sea—Calling in pleading tones of shame To the heart of you and me:
"What avails it now that we fought And died
That Britons might be free?"

"What avails it now that we won the place
Most famed in the British line?
Greater, indeed, shall be the shame That falls to the lot of him Must you know the jeer of a looser breed, Oh, naive land of mine?"

Ah, now we come from the West and From the South and East we come;
From every hamlet, bay and bight, We follow the throbbing drum And the bugles note that calls To arms for country and for home!

Empire Day Collection for Red Cross

Yesterday afternoon, at Government House, a meeting of the Imperial Red Cross Committee was held with His Excellency the Governor, Sir C. Alexander Harris, who has kindly accepted the Honorary Presidency of the Association, in the Chair. There were present also Miss C. Armorer Harris, Acting President; Mrs. G. H. Emerson, Honorary Treasurer; and Mrs. W. G. Gooding, Honorary Secretary. W.P.A.: Sir William Hor-wood, Sir P. T. McGrath, Major Macpherson, Colonel Rendell, C.B.E., Mr. John Fenelon, and Mr. F. H.
Steer, M.B.E., Hon. Secretary. The annual statement of the Treasurer was read and adopted, and it was decided that it be published in the press shortly. The matter of the customary Empire Day collection was taken up, and discussed at some length.
The ladies of the W.P.A. represented that this year they desired that the results of the "tag day" movement the proceeds of which other years were given to the Imperial Red Cross be left with the contributors this year, because they were under heavy expenses, due to the fact that the materials which they were using in working up supplies for the Red Cross had nearly trebled in value. For instance, a shipment of Red Cross material for hospital outfit, bandages, etc., had cost more time ago, and which last year cost less than $4,000, this year nearly $8,000, and the same great increase was occurring also in the other lines of the W.P.A. work. It was stated that though there had been a most generous response to the appeals of the organization the past winter for funds, the money in hand was now nearly exhausted, and but for the magnificent contributions secured from the Curling Association and the sealers, the output totally nearly $3,000 from each of the two years have been very serious. On the other hand, it was pointed out that the Imperial Red Cross Fund was now, for the first time in its history, in a position to pay, and had actually spent a million pounds last year more than its visible receipts, and was making a special appeal to the people of the British Empire for an increased contribution the present year. It was ultimately decided to arrange for the collection throughout Newfoundland on Empire Day, and to request the co-operation of the Board of Trade, Trade in St. John's and of the magistrates and other authorities in the outposts; and Messrs. Rendell and Steer were appointed a committee to interview the Board of Trade with a view of having the collection taken up in the city and to arrange for setting on foot the work in the outposts.
The form of appeal submitted by Mr.
Fenelon was considered and will be dealt with, and will be forwarded to all concerned. The proceeds from this source will be turned over to the Imperial Red Cross Fund, but in view of the statement of the W.P.A. ladies it was agreed that the proceeds of the tagging on Empire Day this year would be left with the local organization to assist in carrying on its work, being pointed out that there is a substantial benefit from this arrangement in the fact that a very large amount of value is put into the raw material here by the work done by the ladies thereon, and that consequently the more finished material there is sent from Newfoundland to the Imperial Red Cross headquarters the less will be the financial burden on the other side, which will be involved through the purchase of this material in a finished form over there. We have no doubt that the public will exhibit their customary generosity in assisting this most deserving movement by generous contributions on May 24th.

A GERMAN APPARAGE.

LONDON, May 8.
There seems little doubt that a Monarchy will be proclaimed in Finland, says a Stockholm despatch to the Times, and that the German candidate, Duke Adolphe Frederick of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, uncle of the Crown Princess of Germany, will be King. A spirit of reaction has spread throughout the country, it is added, and the Finnish Constitution, which was the most democratic in Europe, is to be remodelled on more or less autocratic lines. The Socialists and Democrats are under the ban for having favored the rebellion. Finland, the despatch continues, is still far from being completely pacified and desultory fighting with the rebels continues at many points.

COMMANDERING OLD CLOTHING

AMSTERDAM, May 8.
The City of Berlin has been ordered to produce forthwith, clothes for war workers and those engaged in railway and army work. It is to be a voluntary surrender against a small payment, but warning is given that if the clothes are not forthcoming they will be taken by force. This applies especially to persons whose social position warrants the assumption that their wardrobes are well stocked. Monday was the first day for the collection and depositories were opened for the purpose. There was a rush of people laden with old coats, and trousers who did not conceal their anxiety to get possession of a certificate from the voluntary contributors, exempting them from official inspection of their wardrobes. The results of the first day's contributions is said to warrant confidence that the required total will be reached easily.

WILL GERMANY GET ANY?

WASHINGTON, May 8.
In defiance of the German submarines, the United States is sending grain to Switzerland aboard armed merchant ships. The heavy naval convoys, prepared to fight their way through the danger zones. Two grain ships left an Atlantic port, sometime ago, and two more sailed last week and others will go soon.

CONSCRIPTION OF BELGIANS.

WASHINGTON, May 8.
Seven hundred young men of Brussels, born in Belgium, of German parentage, but Belgian citizens, have been enrolled in the army, according to an official despatch to-day from France.

WILHELM DISAPPOINTED.

LONDON, To-day.
Only 1300 yards from the walls of Ypres and "our advance on Ypres," were the joyously anticipatory headlines stretched across front pages of German papers on April 22nd, the day of General von Armin's sanguinary defeat. It is plain, says F. W. Wille, in the "Times," that the German advance expected during the course of the day, Karl Rosner, the Imperial Press Agent reported that the Kaiser was on the Ypres battle front, ready of course, had events taken a different turn, to make a triumphant entry into the town.

THE ALLIES ARE THERE.

WASHINGTON, To-day.
Allied forces are along the line in the Vosges, says a despatch to-day by the British Military Mission and were it not practically certain that another great battle would be fought during the course of the day, Karl Rosner, the Imperial Press Agent
reported that the Kaiser was on the Ypres battle front, ready of course,
town.

SERIOUS SITUATION IN AUSTRIA.

LONDON, To-day.
The latest separatist programme of the Marquis de La Fayette, and a despatch to the Daily Mail, from the Hague, quoting advice from Vienna, is to create a state to be named greater Milecia and include Milecia and the Slovene districts of Hungary, with the capital of Olmutz. Vienna newspapers of the day, which are full of the situation, are full of the situation, which is a great deal more serious than the situation in Austria, otherwise it would not play with fire. It says that the adjournment of Parliament seemed to have the last safety valve, at a moment when an explosion of popular feeling was likely to be provoked by extreme pressure.

FRENCH ARISTOCRAT DECORATED

PARIS, To-day.
Count Gilbert De La Fayette, son of the Marquis de La Fayette, and a descendant of General La Fayette, of revolutionary fame, has been decorated with the War Cross. He has been serving as a Sergeant in the French artillery.

MEXICO EXPELS AMERICANS.

WASHINGTON, To-day.
Unofficial advice received here, tell of an order for the expulsion from Mexico, by the Carranza Government, of Robert H. Murray, the representative of the Committee on Public Information in Mexico City, who in that capacity has been in charge of the work conducted by the American Government to offset German propaganda. At the same time unofficial advice says, one of the correspondents of the Associated Press in Mexico City, W. E. Weigand, also was ordered to leave. The expulsion of both men, it was stated, was on order under the Mexican Constitution, which provides for the summary deportation of "pernicious foreigners" without trial or hearing.

SMALL BEGINNINGS.

Large oaks grow.
Little acorns grow.
The wise man said,
long, long ago.
Oh, he had lived and loved and learned, and ere he to the dust returned, he summed up all the things he knew—and he had learned a fact or two—and sprung them in the form you know: "Large oaks from little acorns grow." One day the news from France was vile; the Touts advanced, mile after mile; it seemed that they would win the scrap, and back the allies off the map. And scores of men with arctic feet were standing on the village street; their whole appearance was a frost; they said that everything was lost. "The Touts have won," they said to each other; "they'll march right onward to the sea, and ere they stop their sinful games they'll bombard Windsor and St. James. We might as well take in our sign, and spend the future shedding brine." I said to them, "Oh, morbid owls, cease putting up such doleful howls! There's nothing lost till Pershing wires that he has busted all his trees." A few creek words I threw around, their pessimism to confound; 'twas all they needed, and they rose and bet ten bones they'd whip the foe. A few bright words in season sprang will off relieve the withers wrung by fear and hopelessness and woe; large oaks from little acorns grow.
