GERMAN SAILORS PRISONERS.

LONDON, June 25.

(Reuter's Ottawa Agency)—The Admiralty announces that on the afternoon of June 22nd, German officers were formed up on the deck of the warship Revenge under an armed guard, with Admiral von Reuter and his staff in front. Admiral von Reuter was to consider himself a prisoner of war for violating the terms of the armistice, and added that this was a traitorous act but not the first occasion on which the Germans had violated all laws of civilization on the High Seas. Admiral von Reuter replied he was responsible for what had been done. He said he had felt he had done what any British sailor would have done under the same circumstances. He would do it again under similar circumstances. The prisoners were then marched off.

MASON'S PEACE CELEBRATION.

LONDON, June 25.

Many overseas Freemasons have arrived in England within the last few days to take part in the great Grand Lodge celebration of peace at Albert Hall, on June 27th. Canada Lodge holds its annual installation to-day when a special feature will be the entertainment of visitors from Canada and the United States. Baron Amthill will be the installing master. The Lord Mayor of London, on the evening of June 26, will hold a reception at the Mansion House in connection with the celebration, when a number of distinguished masons have been invited to meet the Duke of Connaught. A meeting of Jubilee Masters' Lodge, of which the Duke of Connaught is permanent master, isto be held on June 28th to meet the distinguished overseas brethren.
There will be a joint meeting of Colonial Institute Lodge and United Empire Lodge on June 30.

TINO IS BROKE.

PARIS, June 25.
Former King Constantine of Greece who has been living in Switzerland, is in financial difficulties, according to advices from Geneva to Paris newspapers. Former Emperor William has been supplying the former Greek ruler with funds, but this subsidy has been cut off. It is added that Constantine is endeavoring to become reconciled with the present Greek Government.

HORATIO AGAIN.

PARIS, June 25.
An authorized denial was made in a high American source to-day that there was any truth in an intimation made in the British House of Commons yesterday by Horatio Bottomley, Independent member from South Hackney, and editor of John Bull, respecting the disposition of the German war fleet. Mr. Bottomley's intimation was that President Wilson had overruled the plea of Premier Lloyd George that the German ships should be surrendered instead of interned.

HINDENBURG RESIGNS.

BERLIN, June 25.
Hermann Muekler, the new Foreign Minister, the Tageblatt says, has declined to go to Versailles to sign the Peace Treaty. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, it is added, has resigned the chief command of the army.

THE U. S. ARMY.

WASHINGTON, June 25.
Without recording a vote, the Senate to-night adopted the Committee amendments to the Army Appropriation Bill providing for an average army of four hundred thousand men for a year, beginning July 1.

NOT TRUE.

DUBLIN, June 24.
With reference to the allegation made by Messrs Walsh and Dunne, representatives of American Irish Societies, that the prosecution of Countess Markievicz, Sinn Fein leader, was in retaliation for the Countess having given information to the delegates concerning brutalities against Irish women, an official denial of this charge was issued at Dublin Castle to-day.ANOTHER SCHEME BEING PRE-PARED.LONDON, June 25.
Right Hon. Ian Macpherson is hard at work on a scheme for the solution of the Irish problem which helast evening was due to an attempt to arrest two Australian soldiers.
The police used their batons. It is reported that a number of policemen and Australian soldiers were injured.

ULTIMATUM MAY BE NECESSARY.

PARIS, June 25.
If the heads of the Allied Powers in Paris do not hear from Weimar very soon regarding the German delegation for the signing of the Peace Treaty an ultimatum will be sent to the German Government, according to the Paris office of Reuter's Limited.
The ultimatum will demand the appointment of plenipotentiaries within a certain number of hours.SIGNING MAY BE DELAYED TILL MONDAY.PARIS, June 25.
Up to 4.45 o'clock this afternoon no official word had been received here regarding the formation of plans with regard to the signing of the Peace Treaty. The peace leaders were perplexed over the situation. It was conceded to be impossible that the ceremony of signing could take place before Saturday. Unofficial reports were that it would probably be delayed until Monday.GERMAN REPRESENTATIVES NOT YET CHOSEN.WEIMAR, June 25.
The plenipotentiaries who will sign the Peace Treaty for Germany have not yet been chosen. It is still proving difficult to find men who are willing to affix their signature to a document which is to be such a momentous historic record.

SELECTING NEW DELEGATES.

PARIS, June 25.
Advices from Germany to theCouncil of Four are to the effect that the German Government was occupaied to-day in selecting new delegates for Versailles.

RIOTING AT HAMBURG.

COPENHAGEN, June 25.
Serious rioting occurred at Hamburg on Monday and Tuesday when mobs attacked food preserving factories, it being alleged that bodies of dogs and cats had been found in them. The managers were dragged to the streets and roughly handled.
The mob tried to disarm troops marching through the streets and the latter opened fire, a number of persons being killed and wounded.

WINNIPEG STRIKE OFF.

WINNIPEG, June 25.
The general sympathetic strike has been called off. The men out have been told to return to work on Thursday morning at eleven o'clock. The decision of the strike committee which ends the struggle, follows a conference of delegates of the strike committee with Premier Norris and members of the Provincial Govt. yesterday morning. A commission will be appointed to investigate the strike and settle the dispute at once.

BRITAIN NOT TO BLAME.

LONDON, June 25.
In the House of Commons to-day Right Hon. Walter Long, First Lord of the Admiralty, stated that the Allies in Paris were now considering the question of reparation for the sinking of the German warships. The statement that the crews were changed periodically was not right, he said, but invalids were exchanged. The total guard had been reduced from 4,700 to 1,800. It was impossible for the Admiralty to take precautions to prevent the sinking, because the ships were interned, not surrendered.
Therefore the Admiralty had no power to place guards on them. Mr. Long denied that the Admiralty had recommended internment. He pointed out that the decision of the Allied heads in favor of internment controlled the situation and made prevention of the sinking utterly impossible.

AN OFFICIAL EXPLANATION.

PARIS, June 25.
The following may be regarded as an official explanation of the proposals regarding the German fleet. At the time of the signing of the armistice the British Admiralty and the British Government strongly urged that the German ships be surrendered.
The French military authorities, put forward the view that to the purpose of the armistice the surrender of the German ships was not absolutely essential. They were most anxious that the armistice should be concluded, having regard for the very heavy loss of life daily on the Western front. Insistence upon the surrender of the fleet, they felt may delay the signing which, despite rumours to the contrary, Marshal Foch was as desirous as anyone.
The French, therefore, suggested that the German ships be interned in neutral ports, a course which they believed would be regarded by the enemy in the same way as would the surrender of the ships. This view was supported by Admiral Benson, American Naval representative in Paris. Ultimately a compromise was reached providing for the internment of the ships in a British port.

TURNING ONE'S FAMILY INSA

RUTH CAMERON

To refuse to admit to an outsider that any member of one's family has a fault or could be in the wrong in anything is family loyalty carried to an extreme that I at least think unjustifiable.
But there is another attitude at the end of the scale which, tho' less common, is just as annoying.
I mean that of the person who makes a point of perfect frankness about all his family's faults and foibles and even drags out the family skeleton before an audience half interested, half embarrassed.I have lately been thrown into contact with an unusually notable example of this.Here are some of the things she says—not just to intimate friends, in confidence, but to anyone who cares to listen.This is the Way She Talks About Her Sister's Playing.She has a sister who plays fairly well on the mandolin. She is often asked to play and evidently enjoys doing it and thinks herself a passable performer, which she is. After listening to her one day M— said to me, "Too bad Grace can't play the mandolin when she wants to so much."Speaking of the children of another sister, "Of course, you know Emily's children are dreadfully spoilt.
Emily never was meant to have children. She hasn't the faintest idea in the world how to bring them up.
I wouldn't be a bit surprised to see Harry (her nephew) land in a reform school."

She Calls Her Mother Unpatriotic.

When I asked her about her mother one day she said, "Oh, mother's deep in dressmaking as usual. I think it is terrible for a woman of her age to think as much of clothes as she does. Why all through the war it was as much as I could do to get her to knit a little."
