[Caigary Tribune, Londoners can assure the Tribune that Mr. Harding will prove an admirable citizen, He and his estimable family will be greatly missed in the city, and particularly in South London, where they reside. A host of good wishes follow them to their new home. Mr. Harry Harding, of the Merchants' Bank, remains in London. Willis-Graham.

Willis-Graham.

There was a pretty wedding Wednesday at the residence of Mr. James Graham, 842 Queen's avenue, it being the marriage of his eldest daughter, Lily, to Mr. Alfred Willis, of Hamilton, Ont. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Antliff in the presence of a few invited guests. The happy young couple left on the Pacific express last night on a honoymoon trip wost. Not in the Wreck.

It was reported early in the week that Deputy-Reeve Lynn, of Lobo, who had been on a visit to Chicago, was missing, and that it was feared he had perished in the that it was feared he had perished in the accident at Battle Creek. A Lobo correspondent, however, informs us that Mr. Lynn is all right; that he went to Chicago with Mr. Frank Nichols, of London township, and returned with that gentleman. He was delayed in coming back, hence the tears of his friends.

The Globe reports a rumor in circulation at Osgoode Hall to the effect that Sir Thomas Galt is to retire, and that his place on the bench will be taken by Mr. W. R. Moredith, leader of the Local Opposition. There is no verification to the report. It may be true, nevertheless. Mr. Moredith has been absolutely quiet in recent months, while Messrs, Clancy and Campbell, possible successors, have been Campbell, possible successors, have been defined a regular condition. No doubt some opening public meeting will be doubt some opening public meeting will be held at an early date.

A Successful "At Home."

A Successful "At Home."

An "At Home" was held in the Memorial Church schoolroom on Tuesday night in aid of the Girls' Havergal Mission Band. The attendance was very large and a splendid programe was carried out by the members of the choir. The chair was occupied by the rector, Canon Richardson, and Mr. W. A. Bieuthner presided at the organ. The singing of a quintet composed of Misses Fannie Drew, Millie Taylor, Ettie Yates, Katie Dowel and Mr. H. C. Simpson was vigorously applauded. The last named also sang several tenor solos in good voice and Mrs. Boomer gave a very acceptable reading. Retreabments were served by the ladies of the church. The collection at amounted to $20.
