

WILL TAKE NO CHANCES

Quarantine on American Cattle Will Not Be Lifted Yet.

Ottawa, March 3.—Mr. Rutherford, chief of the veterinary branch of the Canadian Agricultural Department, has returned from a visit to the Eastern States. He found that the foot and mouth disease has practically been stamped out in that region, but the question is, Will it reappear in the spring? Till that time has passed without any reappearance of the disease, the quarantine regulations now in force will likely be maintained.

OXFORD MAN MISSING

Had a Large Sum of Money on Him When He Disappeared.

Thamesville, Ont., March 3.—John H. Laidlaw, a young farmer living in the Township of Oxford, drew a large sum of money out of the bank in London on Tuesday last, intending to take it to Thamesville, and has not been seen since. He is a steady young man, and his mysterious disappearance is causing his relatives great anxiety.

WILL ANNEX MUSCAT

The Little State May Become Britain's Next Eastern Acquisition.

St. Petersburg, March 4.—According to the Novoye Vremya, Great Britain, which has practically already taken more territory than she can manage to govern, is planning the annexation of the little State of Muscat. The Novoye Vremya says that the Sultan of Muscat, ruled by the expense incurred in reorganizing his customs service on the advice of the British, American and French consuls, now seems to be doing nothing but the means to maintain order at Muscat, the port of Muscat. The British consuls there, who form a large part of the population, complained to the British consul, who wrote to the Sultan, ordering the British naval detachment if the Sultan was unable to insure the safety of the inhabitants.

The Novoye Vremya interprets this as meaning the annexation of the Kingdom of Oman, or Muscat, with a coast line of 1,000 miles, an area of 32,000 square miles, and a population of 1,500,000.

ROUGH ON THE GERMANS

Venezuelans Accuse Them of Dynamiting Captured Ships.

Caracas, March 4.—The Venezuelan warships Zambora, Venetines De Mayo and Zambora, captured by the British during the blockade, were dynamited by the Venezuelans on Monday at La Guaira today. It is asserted that a dynamite stoker among the crew left by the Germans on board the Venezuelan warship Zambora, the report has been confirmed. The revolutionaries are still retreating from the Caracas district, and are now at Rio Chico.

AN ATLANTIC TRAGEDY

Steamer Sighted by a Liner Suddenly Capsizes and Sinks.

New York, March 4.—The German steamer Pisa, from Hamburg, which arrived here yesterday, reported having sighted on Feb. 15 a steamer with one mast and one funnel standing, bow up, and water and steam settling down. When the Pisa was within one mile of the steamer the latter disappeared. No boats or rafts were to be seen. The Pisa cruised around the vicinity for many hours, in the hope of picking up survivors of the crew of the vessel, but was unable to find any small boats or any wreckage. Capt. Sentz says it was a good-sized ship. He believes all hands were lost.

CANCER OF THE LIP

Successfully Treated by the New Constitutional Remedy Without the Need of Knife or Plaster.

Cancer of the lip is often spoken of as "Smokers' Cancer," due to the frequency with which it attacks habitual users of the pipe. The disease usually starts as a crack or ulcer and spreads until it affects the surface of the lip, and often extends to the jawbone. Cutting the cancer away or drawing it out with a plaster are methods of treatment that have been in vogue for generations, and while painful in the extreme do not effect a cure, as the disease soon returns. The only safe, painless and permanent cure is to be found in our constitutional treatment, which rids the system of all cancer germs and poisons, promotes the absorption of the lump or growth, and causes healthy flesh to form in place of the sore. Literary Notes.

CENTURY MAGAZINE.

In the Century Magazine for March Sir Stannard Baker, author of "The Great Southwest," has an interesting companion paper (illustrated), in "The Great Northwest." Justin H. Smith's "Prologue of the American Revolution" describes Montgomery's struggle for Quebec, and George Buchanan Pile, on "The Great Business Combinations of Today." Considerable space is given to various phases of American immigration problems. These are discussed by Jacob A. Riss, who, under the caption of "The Gateway of Nations," describes some of the scenes and conditions of Ellis Island, in New York harbor; the question, "What Shall We Be?" is dealt with by Gustave Michaud, while Franklin H. Giddings, professor of sociology at Columbia University, comments on Mr. Michaud's statements touching America's dominating race characteristics in the near future. This number of the century also contains the first of two articles on "Humors of Congress" by Francis E. Leupp, who has gathered material during several years' experience as the Washington correspondent of the New York daily. Besides these and other articles there is the usual interesting variety of serial and completed stories.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY.

Capt. A. T. Mahan opens the March Atlantic with his recent address on "The Writing of History." John B.roughs has a pungent article on "Real and Sham Natural History." An interesting paper is the second of President Arthur T. Hadley's articles on "Academic Freedom." In fiction, there is Arthur Sherburne Hardy's serial, interesting stories and sketches are "The Witch Bride" by George Wasson, "The Countess at Pondsborne," by E. J. Connelley, "The Daughter of St. Irene," by Florence Wilkinson, Annie Fields' "St. Teresa," and C. S. Baldwin's "Pulse Gypsies." "The Contributors' Club" is bright and lively.

POPULAR SCIENCE MONTHLY.

The Popular Science Monthly for March opens with a serial of three unpublished letters by Charles Darwin. These letters are of unusual interest, relating largely to Darwin's great discovery of the origin of species by natural selection. Other articles are: "The Vienna Academy of Science," by Edward F. Williams; "Mental and Moral Heredity in Royalty," by Dr. Frederick Adams Wood; "High-Grade Men in College and Out," by Prof. Edwin G. Dexter; "The Source of Nitrogen in Forest Soil," by Raphael G. Zon; "Education for the Professions," by Prof. R. H. Thurston; "Science vs. Art Appreciation," by John Quincy Adams; "The Fossil Man of Kansas," by Prof. S. W. Williston; "The Smithsonian and Carnegie Institutions," by President Eliot; "Summary of the Plans and Methods of the Carnegie Institution," by George Gabriel Stokes.

THE COSMOPOLITAN.

The Cosmopolitan Magazine for March contains among other noteworthy articles, "The Police Systems of Europe," by Avery D. Andrews, formerly police commissioner of New York. It is capably illustrated. "The Selection of a Home," by Clarence A. Martin, professor of architecture at Cornell University, is a series of twelve articles on the general subject of "How to Administer a Household." Louise Parks Richards contributes an interesting and personal sketch of the great painter, Von Lenbach. Two other character sketches deal with James Brooks Dill, the prominent corporation lawyer, and Edward Henry Hagan, the western railroad czar. Elbert Hubbard, in an article on "A Gladiatorial Renaissance," makes out a strong case against football as it is played today, and Tom Masson discusses how many men a girl should be engaged to before she marries. "The Woman of Fifty" by Mrs. Willard Moore Fernald, with the victory of modern woman over her hereditary enemy, time. Besides other interesting articles the March Cosmopolitan also contains four complete stories in addition to Henry Seton Merriman's new novel, "Barlasch of the Guard."

COUNTRY LIFE—A DOUBLE NUMBER.

A double number, doubly beautiful, is the March issue of Country Life in America, and its sub-title, "A Gardening Manual," is fully earned by the generous and excellent bits of fact, fiction and advice for those who love to get out in the home lot and see things grow. Among the articles that will inspire and instruct the ambitious amateur gardener, are: "The Home Garden," by Prof. L. H. Bailey, who is undoubtedly America's leader in matters horticultural; "Hints to Make Your Garden," by "The Home Vegetable Garden," "Spring Work," "The Improvement of the Back-Yard," "A Garden Twenty Feet Square," and many other interesting readings of like character. The number is magnificently illustrated and is fully up to the high mark set by the publishers, Doubleday, Page & Co., to make Country Life the most beautiful magazine in America.

WORLD'S WORK.

World's Work, the magazine for people who do things, is out for March and very many will read its contents with keen interest and mental profit. "The March of Events" covers the field of modern history and presents in condensed and readable shape world news for the busy man. "The Workings of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure.

She Recommends This Remedy to Every Sufferer as a Sure Cure for Rheumatism—It Cures to Stay Cured—Valuable in Violent Changes of Temperature.

"A simple remedy is better at the beginning of the disease than a council of doctors at the critical stage."—Munyon.

"As the evidence of Mrs. Wallbridge indicates, my Rheumatism Remedy will cure Chronic Rheumatism speedily and permanently. It will also cure long standing cases of lumbago, sciatica, lameness, stiff and swollen joints, stiff back, and all pains in the hips and loins in a short time. Where it is possible I also recommend my Rheumatism Cure in the earlier stages of the disease, so that the injury to the system that results from chronic or continued rheumatism may be prevented. I would strongly advise you to look after yourself, particularly when we are experiencing violent changes of temperature. This is rheumatism weather. And if you do not check those twinges of pain, temporary aches and stiffness, you will probably develop chronic or some form of painful rheumatism. Try a vial of my Rheumatism Cure. Its cost is not much. I know that it will cure you."—Munyon.

MRS. WALLBRIDGE.

"I have suffered with Rheumatism for twenty long years, and the pains at times would be terrible. My shoulder gave me the most distress, and my hands would be useless as well. I tried doctors and advertised remedies, but never received very much relief. I obtained a vial of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure at the free distribution and, as I am thankful I did, the pain has left me. I consider Munyon's Rheumatism Cure a wonderful remedy. Anyone who desires to get cured of Rheumatism, I would recommend them to try it. I believe Munyon's Rheumatism Cure will cure the most obstinate case. Mrs. Wallbridge, 23 Homewood avenue, Toronto, Dec. 15, 1902.

A Modern Hotel," by Albert Bigelow Paine, tells an entertaining story of the organized luxury and wonderful development of the modern hotel in big cities. "Commercial Wireless Telegraphy" (Marconi), by Lawrence Perry, "Widening the Use of Public Schools," "Recent Advances in Medicine," "Public School Teaching," "The Venezuelan Trouble," etc., are only a portion of the literary offerings for the month. As is usual with this splendid publication, the illustrations are not its least interesting feature.

ST. NICHOLAS.

In St. Nicholas for March the editor of books and reading offers prizes of books for the best three accounts of "My Favorite Place for Reading," the sketches to be illustrated or not as the sender chooses. Young readers are also invited to send in lists of the books they are reading, and to give their views of "Water Babies," Lamb's "Tales from Shakespeare," and "Alice in Wonderland." This interesting number also gives an exciting adventure under the title of "Mother's Wolf Story." Albert Bigelow Paine's "Marjorie's School of Fiction" is readable and Ruth Huntington Sessions' "The Unlucky Parrot" furnishes a good fairy tale. There are also "A Miniature Chieftain," "A Window Made of Straw," the March chapters of "The Story of King Arthur and His Knights," "Our Boys and Our Presidents," "The City That Lives Outdoors," and "An Old Time Philosopher," besides plenty of nonsense verse and pictures.

LIPPINCOTT'S.

Lippincott's for March contains a new novel by Mary Moss, the author of "Fruit Out of Season." It is her latest story and is called "Julandora," and is a story of society. There are also short stories by Cy Warman, Ella Middleton Lybott, Phoebe Lyde, Clara E. Ward, Jerome Case, Madeleine Wysham Lanier, Edward Childs Carpenter, Clinton Danglefield and A. E.

Shares. In a paper by Mrs. Sara Yorke Stevenson, some present-day abuses are lightly pointed out, in "Intelligent Communism." Eben B. Rexford gives sound advice in his article entitled "Rural and Village Improvement Societies." Poetry is contributed by Marie Van Vorst, Edgar Fawcett, Florence Earle Coates, Charles McIlvaine, Hilton R. Greer, Charles Francis Saunders, Agnes Lee, Alonzo Rice, Alden Charles Noble, Albert Bigelow Allen and William Lucius Graves. The "Walnuts and Wine" department follows the substantial feast.

SCRIBNER'S. The March Scribner contains an important article by Hon. David J. Brewer, on the supreme court of the

The Wabash Trainmen Give President Ramsey Another Chance.

St. Louis, March 4.—At the request of President Ramsey, the committees of Wabash railroad firemen and trainmen have modified their demand for a reply to the request for an advance by noon today and he is given until 5 o'clock to further consider the matter.

COL. LYNCH AND GALWAY

Motion to Disfranchise the County Is Rejected.

London, March 3.—A motion to disfranchise Galway, in consequence of its action in electing Col. Arthur Lynch, recently convicted of high treason, was defeated in the House of Commons yesterday by 28 to 45 votes. The Attorney-General having moved the issue of a writ of election for a member of Parliament in place of Col. Lynch, an amendment (Conservative) proposed as an amendment that a writ be not issued during the life of the present Parliament, was defeated by 100 to 100. Lynch simply because he was a traitor, and quoted an alleged message from John Redmond, asking the voters to elect Lynch and "haul down the blood-stained flag of England."

Redmond warmly denied sending such a message, and explained that he was in America at the time.

AN HYDROPHOBIA CURE

Doctor in the States Tries It With Great Success.

Williamsport, Pa., March 4.—Dr. C. W. Yehman, of this city, believes that formalin will cure hydrophobia. In the Williamsport Hospital, Joseph Chappaux, now convalescent and will fully recover after a well-developed case of the dread malady.

Chappaux was bitten by a mad dog at Shinnemoaning three weeks ago and at once hurried to Williamsport Hospital, where his right arm, the one bitten, was amputated. Complications set in and the patient soon developed hydrophobia. After consultation and as a last hope an injection of formalin was given him.

Soon after the temperature fell from 104° to normal, and the patient improved in every way. At no time since has he shown any signs of hydrophobia, and seems to be certain of complete recovery.

Holton, Mo., with a population of 4,500, has 17 churches.

Laxative Broncho Quinine

Cures a Cold in One Day. Grip in 2 Days.

United States, defining what this body has done in the development of American institutions. Mme. Waddington's interesting letter in this number describes one of the most brilliant spectacles of modern times, the coronation of Czar Alexander III., of which she was an eye-witness. "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" fully sustains in this number the interest which the earlier chapters created. C. Peixotto, the artist, writes entertainingly of Punch-and-Judy shows in an illustrated article entitled "Marionettes and Puppet Shows." In addition to these and a number of other articles there are "The Patal Sisters" (a love story); "Dark Before Dawn," (a Moro Princess); and many interesting features.

WHIRLED TO HIS DEATH

Man's Body Revolves on a Shaft No Less Than 200 Times.

Alpena, Mich., March 3.—George Janikson, master mechanic of the Fletcher Paper Company, fell into a clutch pulley at the paper mill Monday morning and was instantly killed. His body revolved around the shaft no less than 200 times before the engine could be shut down. The victim was 48 years of age and was one of the most prominent machinists and engineers in the county.

HIS CAREER CUT SHORT

Imitator of Mme. Humbert's Methods Comes to Grief.

St. Petersburg, March 4.—An impecunious noble of St. Petersburg, named Michaeloff, a diligent student of Mme. Humbert's exploits, decided to follow her example, and instantly killed himself. He was about to receive an inheritance of $100,000.

Completely Fagged Out.

The world is full of sickly, despondent, tired, enervated people, all hoping to be well some day. The surest road to health is along the way of taking Ferrozine after meals. Ferrozine is a great appetite, and enables one to eat plenty of wholesome food without fear of indigestion or dyspepsia. This results in the rapid formation of an abundance of red, vitalizing blood, which will restore the nerves, increase flesh and vigor, and nourish and feed every organ of the body. Ferrozine is an ideal restorative and invigorant. It is a tonic of unequalled merit that anyone can use with benefit. Price 50c per box, or six boxes for $2.50 at druggists or N. C.
