LOCAL MARKET.

London, Thursday, Nov. 28. The market today was a large one for a Th. sday, the square being pretty well filled with vehicles with produce. The market was inclined to be easier, especially for dressed hogs, which dropped in price from 25c to 75c per cwt.

Grain-Oats sold quickly and prices were a trifle lower, at $1 55 to $1 60 per cwt; no other kind of grain offered. Hay and Straw-There was no much hay offered, and as the supply has been light all week, there was a brisk demand and prices were firm, at $16 to $18 per ton, mostly at $17 and $17 50. Straw sold at Butter and Eggs-Butter was weaker, at 27e to 28e for choice rolls, and 26c to 27e for the best crock butter in wholesale lots.

Eggs are plentiful-at least, cold storage and packed ones, and there is a fair de mand for this class; sales are made at 24c per dozen in crate lots; strictly fresh-laid sell at 28c to 30c per dozen Vegetables and Roots-The storekeepers have got their cellars pretty well filled up, or at least the majority of them;

for potatoes; the supply today was not large, and sales were slow at 80c to 90c per bag; parsnips sold at 50c per bu; carrots, 35e, and turnips at 25c per bu; celery, 35c to 40c per dozen; cabbages, 40c Poultry-Turkeys were dull at 12c to 13c per 1b, and for a fine lot of hens, not too large, 14c was paid; old fowl are dull, at Toronto, Nov. 28.-Traders report a continuance of the export demand, but very little inquiry locally. The feed wheat situation has not improved. The deputation from the grain section of the Toronto board of trade will see the Minister of Trade and Commerce today to secure the official recognition of gradations in feed wheat. Barley receipts have been practically cut off entirely by the low prices and the disinclination of buyers to add to their stocks at present. No. 1 northern wheat continues very scarce, a condition not surprising in view of the fact that out of the large amount of grain inspected at Winnipeg in the first two days of this week only cars graded No. 1 northern.
