ONDON AND BRANTFORD PLAY TWO GAMES TODAY

Rain Halted Yesterday's Fixture In Third Inning When Brants Were Leading By Two Runs-Reisling and Graham Pitch Today.

BRANTFORD, July 2.—Rain halted Ivers at third when Mullin went down to second, and his peg was wild, Ivers or here this afternoon. Brantford was when McEvoy made a wild peg to the ford here this afternoon. Brantford was leading by the score of 2 to 0 in the third innings when Umpire Deneau called the contest. Rain was falling heavily at the time, and finishing the game was out of the question.

Reisling and Cresswell were the opposing pitchers. Brantford had scored two runs in the second inning, mixing a couple of hits with a pair of errors by the London infield. Ivers walked to start with, and Mullin singled, Ivers going to third. Lacroix tried to catch
