

The ADVERTISER'S PICTORIAL PAGE

The fountains in Trafalgar Square are being removed so that they can be repaired.

The Countess of Dalkeith taking up a collection for St. Dunstan's.

King Tutankhamen's throne being carefully removed from the tomb recently discovered at Luxor, Egypt.

An essential part of the Belgian advance into the Ruhr was the wine cask.

The wife of U. S. Senator Poindexter, who blames the wives of beaten senators for their husbands' defeat.

A difficult stunt on skates.

A Zuni high priest of New Mexico visits Washington.

A new toboggan stunt. Minneapolis girls hitch their sleigh to an iceboat.

A new type of motor-driven snow sleigh appears in Montreal. It can make forty miles an hour.

A view of the toboggan slide at Banff.

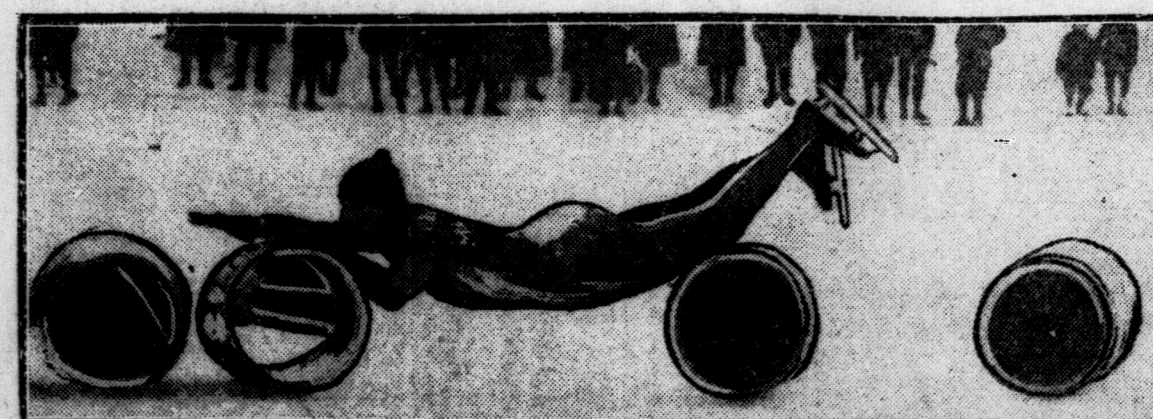

Urban Ledoux and his daughter picket Dr. Stickney Grant's church in New York.

The Duchess of Westminster acts as scorer at tennis tournament at Cannes.

A white cotton matelasse overblouse, with printed pattern of black and yellow.

Bobby Hearn, the noted skater, essayed to vault over several barrels. He failed and fell.

General Allen, commander of U. S. troops in Germany, leaving his headquarters at Coblenz for the last time.