FAITH IN OLD BIBLE IS BAPTIST IDEAL

Impressive Convention Services Held in Talbot Street Church.

Eloquent appeals for faith in the old Bible and for faith in prayer were made yesterday by Rev. G. R. Mac-Faul of Ottawa and Rev. Gabriel Mc-Guire of Montreal, respectively, at convention Sunday in the Talbot street Baptist church.

Rev. G. R. MacFaul, one of the Baptist Grande Ligne missionaries, stationed in Ottawa, speaking at the morning service on "Authority in Matters of Faith," demanded absolute faith in the Bible and the practice of the teachings of Christ in daily life as the sole inspiration required for the Christian conduct of life.

He quoted Dr. Campbell Morgan, the Welsh divine, "The Christian is the world's Bible, and a revised edition is necessary," as containing the substance of his recommendations in practicing the faith of the church and in increasing her influence in the Bible Authority.

"We turn to the Bible as our authority," he said. "I am not going to argue whether it is the Word of God or not. That has been done aften enough. The authority of the Bible rests in the truth inherent in it. In Scripture we have the question, "What must I do to be saved," and the answer, 'Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." That christ and thou snalt be saved. That is the whole authority.

"It is commonly said today that all we need is Christ in the heart and not a story of his life. But I tell you that there can be no Christ in the heart without the Christ of history."

Mr. McGuire at night, recounting the full of Jericho declared, that by Mr. McGuire at night, recounting the fall of Jericho, declared that by the same power of prayer the accomplishment of all worthy human desires could be accomplished. Faith in the ability of prayer to bring the gift asked from God, was, he said, one of the fundamentals of Christianity today. tianity today.

Strength In Faith.

"Faith does four things," he stated, just as it did in the days when the walls of Jericho fell before the prayers of the children of Israel. It conwalls of Jericho fell before the prayers of the children of Israel. It confesses its utter inability alone to achieve the end desired. It falls on its knees and prays. It believes implicity in God's word, and it proceeds at once to the task in hand.

"St. Paul says, 'I can do all things by Christ, and David with his five pebbles went with faith against the Philistine giant. There is no substitute for the power of the Holy Ghost. Can any learned 'professor or doctor of divinity give me a definition of prayer? We should not ask in a minister what are his degrees, or what of his eloquence, but can he pray and has he the ear of God.

"Today we have become filled with the vanity of the ego. From the beautiful Lord's Prayer, and its "Our Father' we have reached a habit of prayer in which we say "When I Lay Me Down to Sleep,' and 'Save My Soul.' We are in the same position as the Pharisee in the temple, and it is well we should remember that it was the publican who went to his home justified rather than the super-cilious Pharisee."

Six Others in Car Escape Injury When Auto Leaves Road.

Associated Press Despatch. Milton, Oct. 26.—Swerving over suddenly to the edge of the road to permit another car to pass in the opposite direction, Robert Cleaves, aged 35, a farmer of Hornby, was instantly killed when he caused his car, containing himself and six others, to turn turtle and topple over an embankment at Drumguin, six miles east of here, this evening.

The others in the car were Cleaves wife and two children and Mrs. Walter Thompson of Georgetown and her two children. They were pinned under the car, and had a remarkable escape from death and serious injury.
Passing motorists extricated them.

FIERY CROSS BURNED IN KINGSVILLE STREET

Letter "K" Surmounted Blazing Symbol—Perpetrators Escape.

Special to The Advertiser. Kingsville, Oct. 26.-Unknown persons burned a fiery cross on Saturday night about 10:30 in the intersection of Mill and Davision streets, close to the Methodist church and only a couple of blocks from the main bus-iness corners of the town. So far as can be learned the men were not in K. K. K. dress or masked in any way. They escaped in two automobiles before their identity could be learned. Provincial Officer Sullivan believes he has a slight clue upon which to work. There was no demonstration of any kind. The autos stopped near the corner, the cross was set up and fired and the men drove away before attention was drawn to their actions. The cross was a crude wooden affair about three feet in height, and was surmounted by a letter K. It was all made of wood and covered with cloth which evidently was soaked all made of wood and covered with cloth, which evidently was soaked in gasoline or kerosene. No attempt was made to extinguish the blaze, and the ruins now lie on the Methodist church lawn.

Some people believe that the incident might be taken as a warning to those who are trafficking in liquor and reference is made to the fact that a cross was recently burned
