MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Mrs. S. S. McNaughton, who died August 9th, 1917.
A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we love is still,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in His Wisdom has provided,
The boon His love has given
Tho' the body moulders far away
The soul is safe in Heaven.

Prisoner—I ain't a deserter, judge; I'm a refugee. Look at the welts on my head and this black eye.

Latin at the Farm.

"Semper fidelis," announced the hobo. "Dat's ma."

"Sic semper," chirped the head of the house, and the bulldog promptly responded.

A Singsong.

"How is your new housemaid?"
"She works like lightning."
"That's fine!"
"No, it isn't. She works like lightning because she leaves ruin and disorder behind her."

NEW REGULATIONS.

Private correspondence for destinations in territory occupied by the enemy, excepting enemy occupied Belgium and the enemy occupied France, may now be addressed direct in the ordinary way instead of being forwarded through an authorized intermediary. Such correspondence, however, must only deal with private news and will be subject to censorship.

Items which contain any information whatever in regard to military, economic or political conditions obtaining in Canada or in any allied countries or which contain undesirable information of any kind will be detained.

Business communications from Canada to destinations in territory which has been certified enemy territory under the Trading with the Enemy Proclamation require a license from the Secretary of State of Canada.

Correspondence intended for destinations in enemy countries (as distinct from enemy occupied territory) or to those destinations in enemy occupied Belgium and enemy occupied France to which correspondence may be forwarded, may still be sent through the medium of Thos. Cook & Son, 530 St. Catherine St. West, Montreal. Application should be made to Thos. Cook & Son, Montreal, for information in this connection.
