Robert Cochran received the following despatch by private wire from New York to day. The talk among brokers at the close of Susiness on Saturday and up-town hotels yeaterday was conservatively builtsh, and the oblaion was general that while there might be one or two attacks made on specialties there would be no general weakness, as its now very evident that the parties who are carrying any lines of long stocks will not dispose of them until there has been at least a partial realization of the anticipated buil move. The buying of the Grangor and the Trunk lines has been good, and the purchasers who trade largely on inside information say that there will be an agreeable surprise in store for the patient holders of these securities. The attempt made inside information say that there will be an agreeable surprise in store for the patient holders of these securities. The attenut made to create impression that the Forty-second-street party was getting out of its "Lake Shore" was only ridiculed because the Vanderbilts, who are as builts a system to the property, say that if they had contemplated any selling they would have waited until this time, as they might have sold out at 97. Jones McCormick and Cammack, Batenna, Dumad and Chicago parties, maintain that it is not bear sales which onused the market to half and weaken. They assert that selling is mostly in the interest of disappointed buils who are tired of carrying their freightless long stocks. Cammack avers that prices are about as high as the clever can hope to see them.

EUROPEAN AND MISCELLAMOUS.

In London today American securities were freely dealt in, though they were a shade weaker in the majority.

The Bank of England rate remains at 9 per cent.
