HAYWARD'S ORDER TO HIS ACCOM PLICE IN THE GING MURDER.

The Mystery Cleared Up By a Confession-Hayward Shot the Girl and Blixt, the Accomplice. Was to Get Rid of the Body for $2000 of Her Insurance-Went to the Theatre Afterwards.

Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 9.-A' confession has been made in the , Catharine Ging murder case. It has been the theory, of the police that G. A. Blixt, the engineer of the Ozark Flats, where both Miss Ging and Harry Hayward resideds committed the murder at the instigation of Hayward. Sunday Blixt broke down and made a complete confession, in which he charges Harry Hayward with committing the murder.

According to his story he was sent by Hayward to the scene of the murder. Hardly had he arrived there than Hayward drove up with Miss Ging. When within fifty feet of him the shots were fired and Hayward alighted from the

and then dump it out." Drove Around With the Corpse. Blixt took Hayward's place in the buggy had drove along the read for about a mile until he became satisfied that Miss Ging was dead. Then he drove back, and when near the place where the murder was committed, he rolled the body in the robe and pushed it out of the buggy. He then drove the horse about a mile until he reached the Lyn-dale-avenue tar line, where he turned the animal loose and rode into town in a car. The horse went direct to the stable and this was the first intima-tion that any one discovered that any-thing was wrong. thing was wrong.

Went to the Theatre Afterwards. Went to the Theatre Afterwards. The murder, according to Blixt, was committed shortly after 7 o'clock, and as soon as he got into the buggy Hay-ward walked to the Hennepin-avenue car line and then took the daughter of a prominent lawyer to the theater. Blixt claims that the murder was originally fixed for the preceding Sunday night, but circumstances were such that it had to be abandoned.

to be abandoned. Was to Be Paid $2000. According to this plan Hayward was to "slug" Miss Ging with a piece of rall-road iron, which Blixt had provided. The body was to be thrown out near the curb of the street corner, the horse turn-ed loose and the buggy wrecked to give color to the theory that the woman had been killed in a runaway. This plan, so Blixt says, could not be carried out successfully, and it was decided to shoot her.

Blixt tells of several other jobs which Blixt tells of several other jobs which had been proposed by Hayward, but which fell through, and says that after this job, for which he was to receive $2000, or one-fifth of the life insurance involved, he was to receive $400 for "doing" a Chicago mau. O. L. Erickson, who took the bundle of clothes to Iowa Falls, is believed to have been a dupe, and it is expected he
