Mr. Alden Walker spent a few days in Annapolis last week.

Miss Annie Longley, of Granville, visiting friends in town.

Mr. Herman C. Morse, Barrister in St. John this week on official business.

Mr. Frank Dodge left Monday on a business trip to Digby Neck and the Islands.

Kempton Hyson was a passenger from Halifax Friday, returning on Monday.

Miss Grace Beanson was the week end guest of her friend, Mrs. Mary Hyson.

Capt. C. W. Collins, of Granville Ferry, was a passenger to Halifax yesterday.

Mr. C. B. Tupper has returned from a successful business trip through Digby county.

Mr. Elias Currell, of Reading, Mass., arrived here yesterday to attend his father's funeral.

Mr. George Nelson, of Annapolis, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sabsons, Carleton Corner.

Miss Bessie Foster, of Hampton, N. S., is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Anderson, Granville Street.

Miss Mildred Wheelock, teacher at Greenwood, King's Co., spent the week end at her home in Clarence.

The Misses Harriet and Annie Dodge were passengers from Kentville via Saturday's express.

Yarmouth Telegram: Mrs. J. Carey Phinney, of Paradise, Annapolis Co., is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. T. Porter, Porter St.

Mr. Karl Thies, of Acadia University, spent the week end at his home in Bridgetown, accompanied by his friend, Mr. Willie Day.

Mr. Herbert Williams, who shipped a carload of cattle from Paradise, Monday night, left yesterday for Amherst to purchase another.

Mr. and Mrs. Enos Daniels, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Award Gills, returned to their home in West Ingleville Monday.

Mr. Harver Sabsons, the efficient electrical engineer at the Power House, spent the week end at St. John, returning home Monday.

Yarmouth Telegram: Mrs. C. W. Mills and Miss Mills came from Boston on Wednesday and proceeded by the D. A. R. for Annapolis Royal.

Among the guests who were present at the Shafter golden wedding, Middleton, referred to in another column was Miss Gladys Reed, Bridgetown.

Mr. F. V. Young, of the Halifax Chronicle mechanical staff, spent the week end at his home in Bridgetown returning to the city via Monday's express.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brown, who attended the funeral of the late Deacon J. A. Brown in Lawrencetown, on Saturday, returned home via Monday's express.

Among the passengers leaving Bridgetown yesterday via the east bound express were: N. E. Chute, for Kentville and Frank Charlton, for Halifax.

Hants Journal: Rev. J. H. Balcom, of Liverpool, supplied the pulpit of the Baptist Church on Sunday, preaching very acceptably at both services.

Prof. Geo. E. Sanders, of Annapolis left Wednesday for Nictaux and other farming villages to deliver illustrated lectures in regard to fruit spraying values, etc.

Mr. Parrish Owen, of Annapolis Royal, of the R. F. C., who was a prisoner in Bulgaria till after the signing of the Armistice, arrived home on Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Marshall, aged 80 years, who resides with her son, Mr. S. L. Marshall, Clarence, fell down stairs Friday night but fortunately escaped serious injury.

Annapolis Spectator: Hugh Sloan of Kentville, was a recent visitor with his sister, Mrs. Dan Copeland, also in town. Mr. Sloan was many years ago employed in the Spectator office.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Grant left Yarmouth by the D. A. R. Thursday for Halifax from which port they sailed at 9 o'clock Friday morning on an R. M. S. P. liner on a trip to Bermuda and other West India Islands.

Town Councilor Hardwick, of Annapolis, returned from Halifax last Saturday after attending the opening of the Provincial Legislature for the 27th consecutive time. Sunday attractions in the city are of no effect on B. E. compared with his comfortable pew in St. George's.

Mr. Charles P. Dunn, the popular president of the Nova Scotia Railway Mail Clerks' Association, was in town Monday, the guest of his uncle Mr. O. S. Dunham. He returned to his home in Halifax via Monday's express, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Sarah E. Dunn, of Digby.

Middleton Outlook: Rev. Mr. Middleton, who delivered an address in the Baptist Church on Sunday morning and in the Presbyterian in the evening as representative of the Christian Men's Federation of Canada received over $200 in cash and pledges for the Belgian orphans fund. He is a pleasing speaker.

The Kentville Chronicle says: Dr. C. E. Avery DeWitt has been offered the position of Medical Superintendent of the Queen Alexandra Hospital at London, Ontario, at a large salary.

The Hospital is one of the best in Upper Canada and has a capacity of 400 beds. We are glad to hear that Dr. DeWitt has about decided to accept the position, but to remain in Wolfville.

The Halifax Recorder of Saturday last said: Chief Justice and Mrs. R. E. Harris gave a dinner party on Thursday evening, which was the fashionable event of the week. It was made the more delightful by the presence of the fair sex, and the old social custom of which Halifax was once so proud seems to be coming into its own again. The Chief Justice is lavish in his hospitality, does all honor to his high office and is voted on all hands a splendid host.

Rev. W. J. W. Swetnam has been invited to preach the Anniversary sermons in the Kaye-Grove Union Church Halifax on the coming Sabbath. This is the first Union Church East of Quebec and is the result of the Halifax explosion, the surviving portions of the two churches forming the present Kaye-Grove Union Church of which the Rev. O. J. Crowdis and the Rev. W. J. W. Swetnam were co-pastors until Rev. Mr. Swetnam's coming to take charge of the Bridgetown Circuit.
