at Bingo, who trotted ahead.   The party stopped in front of the cabin.   Door and windows were open wide, and the people were still hurrying about the field.

" Hi, hi, there ! " shouted grandfather.
A man in the field glanced toward them.

" What are you looking for ? "

No answer.

" We've found a child asleep in the road.   Can you tell us anything about it ? "

At this the man called " Mary, Mary ! "
and with one bound cleared the fence and came running along the road.

" Dad—dad—dad ! " began the baby, bobbing up and down at sight of him.

A woman scuttled under the fence.

" Oh, Bill, have you found him ?   My baby, my baby ! "

" We found him, ma'am," the children said quickly; but she took no notice of them, snatched up the baby, and covering it with kisses ran weeping toward the house.   Her husband stayed behind