

THE HOME AND FOREIGN RECORD FOR 1866.

We are glad to state that the circulation of the Record for 1865 has been considerably in advance of previous years; but we are convinced that it is still far short of what it should be. Only a few congregations are up to the mark which all should attain; while we regret to say that some are almost a blank on our list.

Our terms for 1866 will be the same as for previous years:—

Single copies by Mail. $0 60
Five copies to one address. . . . 2 50
Eleven copies to one address. . . 5 00

For every ten copies paid eleven will be sent. Thus, for Five Dollars we send eleven copies; for Ten Dollars twenty-two copies, and so on.

SUBSCRIPTIONS MUST ALL BE RENEWED, the old lists being annually cancelled. Lose no time therefore in getting up your orders for 1866.

We have great pleasure in announcing that with their January number our readers will receive a prepared expressly for the Record. It was engraved in Edinburgh, and is printed on thick tinted paper. Every family belonging to the Church will be glad to have in their possession a Portrait of our pioneer Missionary, and all they have to do to accomplish this object is to become readers of the Record.

PORTRAIT OF REV. JOHN GEDDIE,

For an increased circulation we must depend chiefly upon the exertions of

MINISTERS,

Who can do a great deal by setting others to work in forming clubs, &c. We earnestly solicit a renewal of their good offices on behalf of the Record. It is emphatically for the interest of the whole church that its periodicals should be widely read. We appeal also to

ELDERS,

And to intelligent and public spirited members of the church. An earnest effort on the part of all our friends would speedily double our circulation. Try!

We have to appeal especially to the Ministers and Elders of the

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN NEW BRUNSWICK,

To come to our aid. Next year will, we trust, witness a union of our churches, and it is very proper that the Record should find its way into at least a few hundred homes in New Brunswick

In all cases we recommend PAYMENT IN ADVANCE. It is only half a dollar for every subscriber, and it will save a great deal of trouble to us and to others if payment is sent along with the order.

SEND YOUR ORDERS BY THE END OF THIS MONTH IF POSSIBLE.

SEND THE MONEY WITH THE ORDER IF AT ALL CONVENIENT.

MAKE YOUR ORDER LARGER THAN LAST YEAR'S.
