THE GEOGRAPHY LESSON

In Paul's time the houses and shops of THESSALONICA were enclosed by a high wall of stone, where soldiers were always on guard. Of course the explosive shells used in modern warfare can destroy such stone masonry like so much cardboard. Looking down over the town from the hill behind it we see roofs covered with earthen tiles. In the part of the town nearest to this standpoint there are a many trees, showing that this is a region of homes. Farther away, towards the harbor, on the streets occupied by shops and offices, factories and warehouses, there are few trees to be seen. Few chimneys are to be seen.

A PRAYER

May we be of those who wait eagerly for thine appearing, Lord Jesus. Teach us the necessity of keeping on guard always if we are to be ready to respond to thy call. Moment by moment may our eyes be fixed on thee, our lives be patterned after thy life, filled with thy Spirit. Teach us how to pray for others' salvation. Led by thy love, may we be shown how to plead with them to accept thee. Warned by thee, may we steer clear of the temptations in our pathway. And always may we live to the glory of thy holy name. Amen.
