Golden Jubilee of Laval University

Quebec, June 25.—The banquet yesterday afternoon at the skating rink in honor of Laval's golden jubilee was a great success, 1,500 being in attendance. At 1 15 p. m., the papal delegate, the bishops, Lieut.-Governor Jette, Rev. Mr. Mathieu, rector of the university, Hon. Chas. Fitzpatrick, Minister of Justice, and other dignitaries arrived and were received with loud applause. The chair was taken by Sir Alphonse Pelletier. A splendid orchestra supplied music, and a choir of male voices led in French Canadian patriotic songs.

The first toast honored was that of the King, which was received with the National Anthem, and three hearty cheers and a tiger. The second was to the Pope and in receiving it the diners sang "Le Pape Nous Regarde." Mgr. Bégin, replying, informed his hearers that on his last visit to Rome he had spoken to the Pope concerning Laval and its coming jubilee, while just recently he had received in answer to a message of greeting, which he read, the following cablegram of blessing: "The Holy Father from the bottom of his heart blesses the archbishops, bishops, clergy, professors and scholars of Laval, an institution which has so well deserved the blessings of the Holy See." His Grace paid an eloquent tribute to Rev. Mr. Mathieu, and Rev. L. A. Paquet, and said that both had been raised to the dignity of apostolical protonotaries by the Pope.

This Little Girl Cured of Eczema

The Burning, Tingling Sensations Taken Away and the Raw Flesh Healed by Dr. Chasce's Ointment. It is not at all unusual for children to suffer greatly from eczema, a form of itching skin disease, but it frequently happens that relief is very hard to obtain, and neglect is likely to leave the subject, a life-long victim of this skin trouble. Dr. Chasce's Ointment has proven itself a quick relief and permanent cure for this ailment.

Protestantism's Homeward Trend

(From The New York Sun) A ceremony significant of the great changes in religious sentiment which have taken place in this country during the last generation was the laying, on Thursday, of the corner-stone of a new convent to be erected at Peekskill for the Sisterhood of St. Mary of the Episcopal Church. Bishop Seymour of Illinois officiated at the ceremony, and among those present were "another u- perior" and many other Sisters of the order. The cost of the new structure is to be $75,000, and it will be one of five convents of the Sisterhood, which is the oldest of the American Episcopal orders.

For Women.

Sisterhood of St. Mary, Sisterhood of St. John the Baptist, All Saints Sisters of the Poor, Sisters of St. Mary and All Saints, Sisterhood of St. Margaret, Sisterhood of the Holy Nativity, Sisterhood of St. John the Evangelist, Sisterhood of the Holy Child Jesus, Diaconal Community of St. Martha, Sisterhood of the Good Shepherd, Sisters of Bethany, Community of All Angels, Sisters of the Order of Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Order of the Holy Resurrection, Sisters of the Resurrection, Society of Epiphany, Sisterhood of the Good Shepherd, Sisters of the Annunciation B. V. M. St. Monica Sisters, Community of the Transfiguration, Sisters of the Church, Sisterhood of St. Joseph of Nazareth, Order of Deaconesses, Alabama, Sisterhood of the Holy Communion. This is a large number of religious orders to have grown up in the Episcopal Church in so short a time, and more especially when we remember that the movement for such establishments in its beginning encountered earnest resistance as a "Romish innovation." The growing tendency of that church toward extreme ecclasiasticism, ritualism, sacerdotalism and sacramentalism is also indicated by other institutions of comparatively recent establishment in it. Here are some of these fraternities which are most representative of the increasing "Catholic" party:—

THE RACE OF THE RODDAM.

It was the "Steamship Roddam, Full-manned and steered with care, One ceaseless day in the month of May Drove in to St. Pierre.

Framed in the green hill's bosom The town was fair to see, And towering high against the sky Stood guardian Mount Pelee.

I tell a tale of the present— No fearful dream of the past— The Roddam lay in that peaceful bay, Her harbor anchor cast.

Right glad the bustling seamen To see the wharves and ships; But the captain looked to the mountain— The laugh was dead on his lips

Bold is your heart, O Captain, And courage you need to-day, When the terrors of God are loosened And a city swept away.

Red fire fell from the heavens, The torn sea boiled beneath, As out through the sulphurous tempest The Roddam raced with death.

Her dead lay thick upon her deck, Her living were scorched and maimed, But she broke away through the blistering spray By gaping seas unclaimed.

The dead lay on her deck-floor, A woe-ful sight to view, And round the smoking scullies Lay thick and hot the blue.

Full many a wreck sea-battered Drifts in to land I wis, But ne'er such grisly phantom Rode in to quay as this.

Through rain of the molten lava, Through blast of the nether fire, With shrouds of flame the Roddam came To the port of her desire —Rev James B Dollard, in The Boston Pilot.

PAUKING CUT FLOWERS.

At the time of the wealth of summer rose blooming it is often desirable to send them through the mail. In fact, cut flowers of every description are constantly sent through the mails at this season, but seldom in such a fashion as to preserve their bloom and freshness, says an exchange. To effect this pack in a light wooden box, not using cardboard, line the box with wadding or cotton batting, laying over this a sheet of tissue paper, then lay the flowers, not on top of each other, but in rows, side by side, the blossoms of each row on the stems of their neighbors. Pack closely, otherwise the flowers will be displaced and injured in the journey. Before packing they should stand in water for several hours, in order to absorb moisture enough to keep them from withering. It is not well to sprinkle them too heavily after they are in the box, for without air this is likely to produce mildew. It is a common practice to wrap a damp cloth about the stems before placing the flowers in the box, but this will make the packing uneven and cause the blooms to become bruised, besides the danger of mildew. If the stems have been allowed to absorb all the moisture possible and they are closely packed, as described, they can be sent long distances through the mail, and will be found fresh and bright when they reach their destination.

DEATH OF MR. L. CARPENTER.

FORMERLY OF BARRIE The death of Mr. L. Carpenter, one of the old citizens of Barrie, occurred in Vancouver, B. C., on June 13th last. The remains were sent to Barrie for burial. Speaking of his death The Vancouver World says: "Death came with suddenness to L. Carpenter, the well-known timber cruiser who represented the Toronto Lumber Company in this province. Several days ago Mr. Carpenter entered St. Paul's Hospital suffering from a minor complaint. Yesterday morning he was feeling very much improved and dressed himself to go for a short stroll. He had scarcely reached the door when he was stricken with heart failure and fell to the floor. He was placed in bed again, and every effort made to save his life but without success, and he passed quietly away early this morning. Deceased came from Barrie a number of years ago and was a gentleman highly respected and esteemed by all who knew him. R. G. Macpherson, the Cordova street chemist, was an old friend of Mr. Carpenter, and to-day wired the sad news to Mrs. Carpenter, who is at present in Barrie." "The remains reached Barrie June 20th, and the funeral on the following Sunday was largely attended. The pall-bearers were Messrs. John Oliver, A. Urquhart, Michael Stritch, John Kennedy, E. Sevigny and Geo. Byrnes. The deceased was born in Paris, France, 66 years ago. A widow, six sons and three daughters are left to mourn his loss. The children of the deceased who were present were Charles, of Chicago, and Harry, of Winnipeg, besides Mrs. A. J. Rogers, Miss Julia, Miss Marie and Frank, of Barrie. Those unable to reach home were Thomas, of Seattle, Joseph, of Chicago, and Edward of New York. Among the beautiful floral tributes were some from Mrs. and Miss Littleton, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Burton, Mr. Urquhart, Mr. Kennedy, Mr. John McDonald, Mr. A. J. Rogers, Mrs. A. J. Rogers, and also a family wreath.

ST. MICHAEL'S CHOIR IN BARRIE.

Barrie, July 7.—The members of St. Michael's Choir, Toronto, journeyed to Barrie on Saturday last, at the invitation of Very Rev. Dean Egan. On arrival of the train at Barrie the visitors were met at the station by the Dean, Rev. Father McEchren and the members of the local choir, headed by Mr. O'Meara, their leader. They were at once taken to the Deanery, where supper was partaken of. On Sunday morning at High Mass the visiting musicians occupied the choir. Haydn's Second Mass in C was splendidly rendered, the principal solos being by Mrs. Small, Misses Maude MacEvey, Teresa Tymon, Alice McCarron, and Messrs Arthur Leightensner and Harris Halle. The Offertory number was the "Jesu Dei Vivi. The Benedictus was Gunod's. The Dean preached a most touching sermon on the Gospel of the day. In the evening the choir rendered La Jeal's Vespers in magnificent style, the rendition of the quartette by Misses McEvey, McCarron, Messrs. Halle and Leightensner, as well as Miss McEvey's "Quia Resurxit" in the Magnificat being especially lovely. Madame Telgmann rendered Millard's "Ave Maria" during the Benediction. Among other numbers were Weigand's "Ave Verum" and "To Progs," (trio). Prof. J. L. R. Richardson wielded the baton and is to be congratulated on the results of his work. Dr. Roberts presided at the organ morning and evening.

IMPERIAL DEFENCE SCHEME

London, July 8.—Referring to the conference at the meeting of the British Empire League last night, the Duke of Devonshire said it was almost impossible that definite results should be obtained until further opportunity is afforded the representatives to consult with the respective colonies. He thought the commercial relations would be solved in accordance with those economic laws which we now disregard, but which will inevitably assert themselves. Regarding imperial defence, that was a question which could not await the conference. Consideration must be given to the state of the colonial forces, whether they are now organized of the greatest value to the empire, or whether the present empire is to remain inviolate, or the colonies become independent States providing for their own security.
