

CATARACT OPERATIONS.

No.	Name and Residence.	General Health.	Age.	Date of Operation.	Quality and Duration of Cataract.	Healing Process, Remarks, etc.	Reduction of Iris.	Secondary Operation.	Notes.
1	Mr. W. E. B., St. Margaret's Bay.	Good ..	75	July 30, 1891. . .	Senile, soft—4 months.	No accident; smooth recovery; opaque membrane in pupil.	Spontaneous.	Keratonyxis on 28th day.	20 —50
2	Mrs. A., Mill Village.	Good ..	50	Oct. 3, 1891.	Senile, hard—2 years.	No accident; very rapid recovery; patient went home at end of 3 weeks.	Spontaneous.	None.	20 —20
3	Mr. K., Halifax.	Good ..	72	Nov. 28, 1891. . . .	Senile, hard—3 years.	Some orbital matter left which blocked pupil; for 3 days iris lay in contact with cornea; no pain; recovery smooth.	Spontaneous.	None.	20 —30
4	Mrs. C., Halifax.	Good ..	73	Dec. 15, 1891. . . .	Senile, hard—3 years.	Very rapid recovery; clear circular and freely moveable pupil.	Spontaneous.	None.	20 —20
5	Mr. C., Sydney.	Good ..	19	Jan. 4, 1892.	Traumatic—10 years.	Tough and thick capsule; no accident; recovery rapid.	Spontaneous.	Opaque membrane slit with Knapp's knife and good opening secured.	20 —200
*6	Mr. S., Halifax.	Good ..	67	Feb. 13, 1892. . . .	Senile, soft—2 years..	Cortical matter left in pupil; prolapse of iris; healing good; no iritis.	By Spatula.	Keratonyxis time and again in July.	20 —100
7	Mrs. H., Halifax.	Fair ..	70	April 2, 1892. . . .	Senile, hard—4 years.	Perfect recovery; no pain; freely moveable pupil.	Spontaneous.	None.	20 —30
8	Mrs. B., Gaspereaux.	Good ..	57	May 12, 1892. . . .	Senile, hard—3 years.	Prolapse of iris, but smooth recovery followed; no pain.	By Spatula.	Keratonyxis on 28th day.	20 —70

Case No. 6 was reported as a partial success, but has since been converted into a success by a secondary operation.