

TENDERS

Tenders will be received up till NOON, THE 30th INST., for all the various trades required in the erection of a building for the Canadian Bank of Commerce, corner of Yonge and Bloor streets. Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of

MESSERS. DARLING & PEARSON,
Architects,
Toronto Railway Chambers, Toronto.
Lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

CONTRACTS OPEN.

BUCKINGHAM, QUE.—W. H. Kelly will rebuild his saw-mill lately burned.

LYNDHURST, ONT.—Steps are being taken to erect a new brick school house.

MILLBROOK, ONT.—The erection of another large grain elevator is proposed.

BRANDON, MAN.—Work has been commenced on the new Methodist church.

RAPID CITY, MAN.—A new equipment of machinery is to be installed in the woollen mills here.

BRYSON, ONT.—Mr. Joseph White is getting material on the ground for the erection of a residence.

LUCAN, ONT. Messrs. Wray & Hawkshaw have decided to rebuild their flour mill recently destroyed by fire.

MULL, QUE.—Wooden sidewalks will be constructed at a cost of $3,500, and granolithic walks at a cost of $5,000.

WALLACEBURG, ONT.—A by-law has been carried appropriating $5,000 for the construction of granolithic sidewalks.

JEANNETTE'S CREEK, ONT.—The Methodists have decided to commence work immediately on their new church.

TRENTON, ONT.—Mr. George H. Gordon, town clerk, writes that contracts for the water works have not yet been awarded.

PARRY SOUND, ONT.—Mr. Joseph Farrer invites tenders until noon of the 23rd inst. for the erection of agricultural buildings.

VICTORIA, B.C.—The council have decided to expend the sum of $4,000 in constructing sewers, the work to be done by day labor.

PAISLEY, ONT.—Robert Scott will receive tenders until the 22nd inst. for painting and decorating the interior of Knox church.

HAWKESBURY, ONT.—Mr. Charles Riordan, of Merriton, has decided to erect a pulp and paper mill here to cost about $200,000.

LACHINE, QUE.—The council has adopted a by-law granting a bonus of $15,000 to George Harrington & Sons to establish factories here.

JOLIETTE, QUE.—At a recent meeting of the council of this town Mr. L. A. Herdt, E.E., was appointed consulting engineer to the municipality.

NORTH TORONTO, ONT.—Mr. James Rogers, of Brunswick ave., has purchased land on Oriole road, on which he will erect a modern dairy.

BRIDGEWATER, ONT.—The Kalader and Anglesea Gold Mining Co. will at once commence the erection of a separating plant at this place.

SOUTHAMPTON, ONT.—The town council have granted $10,000 by way of loan to the Knechtel Furniture Co., to enable them to extend their factory.

THORNBURY, ONT.—A committee of the council have recommended the submission of a by-law to property owners to raise $6,500 for water works.

SPRINGHILL, N.S.—Mr. A. E. Fraser proposes to erect a warehouse on Elgin street, the upper part of the building to be arranged as an opera house.

NEWCASTLE, N.B.—Allan A. Davidson will receive tenders until the 28th inst., at noon, for supplying the heating apparatus for the Newcastle engine house.

HARRISTON, ONT.—W. D. Ebbels, town treasurer, invites tenders until the 26th inst. for the purchase of $25,000 worth of consolidated debentures.

WOODSTOCK, ONT.—The council has under consideration a by-law appropriating $25,000 for the purpose of inducing the location of additional manufactories here.

HALIFAX, N.S.—The corner stone of the new library building of Pine Hill College was laid a few days ago. The building will be of brick and will cost $18,000.

PRESCOTT, ONT.—The council has decided to submit a by-law to the property owners to raise $100,000 for the construction of a water works and sewerage system.

MAPLE, ONT.—J. W. Stewart invites tenders until the 27th inst. for painting, woodwork and decorating ceiling and walls of church two miles north of this place.

WINDSOR, N.S.—John Nalder will receive tenders until the 25th inst. for the erection of a Baptist church. Plans and specifications may be seen at Mr. Nalder's office here.

BROCKVILLE, ONT.—Plans and specifications are being prepared for the new factory of the Brockville Packing & Provision Co., for which the town council recently purchased a site.

AMHERSTBURG, ONT.—The town authorities have invited Dr. Bryce, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, to confer with the citizens with regard to instituting a drainage system.

LETHBRIDGE, N.W.T.—The Alberta Irrigation Co. will immediately commence the construction of extensive irrigation works under the superintendence of J. Anderson, Denver, Col.

SARNIA, ONT.—M. Lowrie, township clerk of Sarnia, invites tenders until the 23rd inst., for the repair of the 6th and 7th concession drains. Plans and specifications at the clerk's office.

BELLEVILLE, ONT.—The city council has instructed the city solicitor to take steps to institute arbitration proceedings to determine the value of the water works, which the city propose to purchase.

TRURO, N.S.—W. D. McCallum, town clerk, invites tenders until noon of the 31st inst. for the erection of a fire hall, engine room and hose house. Plans and specifications at the town office here.

PETERBORO', ONT.—The officials of the congregation of Bethany Mission Christian Alliance have selected a site for a new church building, and it is probable that the new structure will be erected this season.

EDMONTON, N.W.T.—Messrs. A. G. Blair, jr., and George McAvittie have obtained control of the Edmonton District Railway, which it is proposed to extend north and west towards the Athabaska or Peace rivers.

WINNIPEG, MAN.—A number of tenders have been received for the erection of a new central fire hall. The council have deferred action thereon until the value of the material in the old hall can be determined.

ARNPRIOR, ONT.—The council has appointed a committee to deal with the construction of a new iron bridge, a short distance above the present one, plans for which have been prepared by Mr. Hibbard, C.E., of Ottawa.

THOROLD, ONT.—The council has decided to advertise for tenders for the extension of the electric light plant, subject to the passing of a by-law authorizing the necessary expenditure. The estimated cost of the work is $7,161.

HENSALL, ONT.—A. G. Smellie, clerk, invites tenders till 1 o'clock of August 4th, for the construction of the Broadfoot and Sproat creek drains as per plans and specifications to be seen at his office. The estimated cost of the work is $4,100.

ACTON, ONT.—The trustees of school section No. 8, Erin, represented by Robert Johnston, R. H. Wansbrough and Simon McLachlan, will receive tenders until the 23rd inst. for re-flooring with maple lumber the school house in that section.

LINDSAY, ONT.—The Board of Works have been authorized by the Council to open tenders for the construction of South Kent street sewer.—Messrs. Walters and Palkie have been appointed by the Council to inspect the Lindsay street bridge and report regarding the necessity of a new structure.

ST. THOMAS, ONT.—City Engineer Bell and Neil Darrach, architect, are at present engaged in the preparation of plans for the remodelling of the court house.—A charter has been granted to the Peoples Telephone Co., capital $60,000, to construct a telephone system in this city. The president is Mr. Joseph Mickleborough.

QUEBEC, QUE.—The city engineer invites tenders for a new steel swing bridge on the site of the present Bickell's bridge and lock gates.—J. A. Wood, secretary-treasurer Quebec Harbor Commissioners, invites tenders until noon of August 8th for the purchase of first preference bonds to the amount of $150,000.

FORT WILLIAM, ONT.—On August 10th the ratepayers will vote on a by-law to authorize a loan of $40,000 for the construction of a system of waterworks, for which tenders have been taken.—The by-law authorizing the construction of a system of water works will be finally considered and passed by the council on August 16th.

ST. JOHN, N.B.—A mission hall is to be built in connection with the Mission church.—Thomas Cogger, grocer, of Port Howe, will erect a three-storey building.—Representatives of the City Council recently inspected the Alms House, and decided that the alterations recommended by Mr. R. C. John Dunn, architect, should be carried out. These include new heating apparatus.

WOOD'S HARBOR, ONT.—Tenders will shortly be invited for work in connection with the public landing at this place, for which purpose a grant of $2,500 has been made by the Dominion government.—A new public hall will probably be erected by the Aberdeen council, and a similar building is in contemplation further up the harbor by the members of Welcome Lodge I.O.G.T.

PARIS, ONT.—A deputation of Toronto gentlemen approached the council recently on the subject of the construction of an electric railroad between this town and Ayr. It is understood that a charter has been applied for. A company is also seeking a charter under the name of the Grand River Electric Light & Power Co., to construct a stone dam across the river at Mr. Cavan's farm, with the object of supplying light and power. Mr. Fair, of Brantford, is the company's engineer.

KINGSTON, ONT.—H. P. Smith, architect, is at work on plans for remodelling two houses on William street for E. T. Steacy. The same architect is preparing designs for carved oak pedestals for statuary, in the Church of the Holy Name, Cushtendale.—The Standard Oil Co. are said to have invited tenders for the construction of 8 or 10 steel tank barges in which to convey oil from the company's refineries to their distributing station.

BRANTFORD, ONT.—Messrs. Gould, Shapely & Muir Co. invite tenders until