

SCHISM AMONG THE MORMONS.

The last Warsaw Signal states that a rupture had taken place among the Mormons—a respectable number of the most intelligent members of that body having seceded, under the guidance of William Law and set up for themselves. It does not appear that the religious views of the seceders have undergone any material change. They profess to believe that Joseph Smith was once a true prophet, but contend that he is now fallen from grace, and no longer worthy to remain at the head of the Church.

OUTRAGE AT NAUVOO.—The steamer Osprey arrived at St. Louis on the 12th, and reports that on Monday night, the 10th, the office of the 'Expositor'—the anti Jo Smith paper, was destroyed by a band of the Prophet's dupes. 'The Expositor' was established by a number of Mormons who opposed Jo Smith's course, and the disclosures made through it completely enraged Jo and his supporters. The council, therefore, declared that paper a nuisance, and then sent the city marshal with an armed posse to destroy the office. The work of destruction was completed about ten o'clock at night.

ANTARCTIC EXPEDITION.—Sir Robert Peel has granted £2,000 to assist in the publication of the collection of natural history made in Sir James Ross's voyage, &c.; one moiety to be expended on the botanical, and the other on the zoological plates of new plants and animals.

QUEEN ANNE'S FARTHING.—A few days ago a young man who, was employed in harrowing a piece of ground at Summerfield, foot of the road from Restalig to Leith Links, picked up a farthing of the reign of Queen Anne, which was in a high state of preservation. On both sides the relief is almost as bold as when the coin proceeded from the mint. On the obverse side is a very fine effigy of Queen Anne, surrounded by the words, 'Anna Dei Gratia'; and on the reverse, the shield, with "Mag. Br. Fr. et. Hib. Reg. 1711."—Berwick Warder
