

payment of a partial pension, exclusively on the basis of the periods creditable under that legislation.

2. (a) If a person is not entitled to an Old Age Security pension or a spouse's allowance solely on the basis of periods of residence in Canada, a partial pension or a spouse's allowance shall be payable to that person if the periods of residence in the territories of the two Parties, when totalized as provided in Article VII, are at least equal to the minimum period of residence in Canada required by the Old Age Security Act for payment of a pension or a spouse's allowance.
- (b) The amount of the pension or the spouse's allowance payable shall, in this case, be calculated in conformity with the provisions of the Old Age Security Act governing the payment of a partial pension or a spouse's allowance, exclusively on the basis of the periods creditable under that legislation.
3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Canada shall not be liable to pay an Old Age Security pension outside its territory unless the periods creditable under the Old Age Security Act are at least equal to three years and unless the periods of residence in the territories of the two Parties, when totalized as provided in Article VII and taking into account only periods after March 31, 1957, are at least equal to the minimum period of residence in Canada required by the Old Age Security Act for the payment of a pension abroad.
- (b) In the application of paragraph 2 of this Article, where a pension is payable by virtue of this Agreement to a person resident outside the territory of Canada, the amount of the pension shall be calculated exclusively on the basis of periods of residence after March 31, 1957 which are creditable under the Old Age Security Act. For purposes of this sub-paragraph,
 - (i) a person who would be entitled to a pension if he or she were resident in Canada and who has previously been awarded a pension shall be deemed to be a person described in paragraph 1 of this Article; and
 - (ii) a person who would be entitled to a pension if he or she were resident in Canada and who has not previously been awarded a pension shall be deemed to be a person described in paragraph 2 of this Article.
- (c) The spouse's allowance and the guaranteed income supplement shall be payable outside the territory of Canada only to the extent permitted by the Old Age Security Act.

ARTICLE IX

Benefits Payable Under the Canada Pension Plan

1. (a) If a person is not entitled to a disability pension, disabled contributor's child's benefit, survivor's pension, orphan's benefit or death benefit solely on the basis of the periods creditable under the Canada Pension Plan, but is entitled to that benefit through totalizing periods as provided in Article VII, the competent institution of Canada shall calculate the amount of the earnings-related portion of such benefit in conformity with the provisions of
