

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction . . . . .	1
I. GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS . . . . .	1
A. Sources . . . . .	1
B. What to look for . . . . .	4
II. THE STRUCTURE OF THE REPORT . . . . .	4
A. OVERVIEW/SUMMARY . . . . .	4
1. Legal and institutional context . . . . .	4
2. Realities of government and power structure . . . . .	5
3. Declared commitment of government to human rights and democratic principles . . . . .	5
4. Actual government performance and effective enjoyment of human rights by citizenry . . . . .	5
5. Areas requiring improvement/attention and prospects for advances in future . . . . .	5
6. Relevant international treaty commitments, commitment to cooperate with international human rights mechanisms . . . . .	5
7. Implications for Canadian foreign policy interests . . . . .	6
B. STATE OF INTERNATIONALLY RECOGNIZED RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS . . . . .	6
1. Civil and political rights . . . . .	6
a. Physical integrity and security of the person . . . . .	6
b. Rule of law and due process . . . . .	7
c. Political and Democratic Rights and Freedoms . . . . .	8
2. Economic, social and cultural rights . . . . .	8
a. Right to an adequate standard of living . . . . .	9
b. Right to work, just and favourable conditions . . . . .	9
c. The right to education . . . . .	10
d. The right to participate in the cultural life of the community . . . . .	10
3. Equality and discrimination . . . . .	10
a. Freedom from discrimination . . . . .	11
b. Respect for minorities, treatment of indigenous people . . . . .	11
c. Women's rights . . . . .	11
d. Children's rights . . . . .	11
e. Rights of persons with disabilities . . . . .	12
C. CANADIAN REPRESENTATIONS/INTERVENTIONS . . . . .	12