

The United Kingdom Government mentions specifically the prejudice and improperly conducted trials of religious leaders in Hungary, the sentence to life imprisonment of Iuliu Maniu, President of the National Peasant Party in Roumania, the persecution of the Greek Catholic (Uniate) Church in Roumania and the trials of the fifteen protestant pastors in Bulgaria.

The United Kingdom Government states that it considers that the three governments have repeatedly violated and continue to violate the provisions of the Treaties of Peace relating to human rights. They accordingly call upon the three governments to adopt prompt remedial measures in respect of these violations.
