QUESTIONS UNANSWERED

On the orders of the day.

Mr. JEAN FRANCOIS POULIOT (Témiscouata): Mr. Speaker, I would point out that questions Nos. 1 and 2 have been for some time on the order paper, the former for two weeks and the latter for ten days. I would like to have answers to these questions within a reasonable time, or I shall have something to say about it.

UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF

AGREEMENT WITH BRITISH COLUMBIA FOR CARE OF UNEMPLOYED DURING WINTER

On the orders of the day:

Hon. IAN MACKENZIE (Vancouver Centre): I would like to ask the Minister of Labour if the government has entered into an agreement with British Columbia with respect to unemployment relief for single-homeless men, also married men, during the coming winter.

Hon. W. A. GORDON (Minister of Labour): Mr. Speaker, the problem that confronts British Columbia is probably a little different from that of any other province in that more
