

Canada-U.S. Automobile Agreement

deal of concern over the fact that this tariff amount comes from the public. I would suggest to this House that any amount that is obtained by any manufacturer of goods, or anybody who provides services, in effect comes from the public. I wonder, in making this suggestion, is the Leader of the N.D.P. trying to indicate to this House that because all the funds for goods and services provided by companies in this country come from the public that they all should, in some way, be nationalized? Since he has just come back from a meeting of the socialist international

I can understand why he is making this type of suggestion in the House right now.

Mr. Peters: You are making a fool of yourself.

Mr. Gray: No matter what I do in this House, I will never be able to make a fool of myself to the extent the hon. Member of the N.D.P. who has just spoken already has.

May I call it ten o'clock, Mr. Speaker?

At ten o'clock the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
