

CONTENTS.

ii.

	Page.		Page.
	8	Vincent de Paul a Minister of State	49
	5	His success in causing benefices to be impartially bestowed	50
	6	His conduct in regard to a foul calumny	50, 51
	6, 7	Could not be induced to accept favours either for himself or for his congregation.....	51, 52
	7	Wise in deliberation—prompt in execution	52
	8	Highly esteemed by the Prince of Conde	53
	8, 9	Reforms many Religious Orders.....	53, 54
	9	Opposes fanaticism	54, 55
	10	Causes royal edicts to be published against blasphemy and duelling.....	55
	11	Adopts measures for discouraging irreligious and immoral publications.....	55
	11, 12	Extends his care to the State prisoners in the Bastile	55
	12	His conduct in regard to Church patronage	55, 56
	13	The most eminent men of the time his disciples—their wise and liberal counsel to the
	13, 14, 16, 18	King	56, 57
	15	Labours of his "Congregation"	57, &c.
	15	— in Barbary.....	58, &c.
	16	— in Poland	62
	19	— in Corsica	62, &c.
	20	— in Ireland and the British Isles.....	65
0, 20, 21, 22, 23	24, 25	— in Scotland.....	66, 67
	25	Vincent's last illness and memorable words.....	67, 68
	26	Honor paid to his memory—words of eminent men	68, 69
	28	His canonization	69
	28, 29
Paris, and	29, 30
	31, 32
and driven	33
	33
	33, 34, 35
tion in the	36, 37
pinion in	37, 38
	38, 39
	39, 40, 41
	42
essential	43
	44
in the year,	44
	45
	45
Vincent to	46
	47
	47, 48
	49

ERRATA.

- Page 35—In third line efface at before some, and at the end of fourth line efface at before this.
- Page 50—(note)—read Madame de Motteville.
- Page 52—Second paragraph, for in the presence of the Creator of Royalty itself, read in the presence of the great,—of Royalty itself.