

St. Paul's Church Sunday Schools

MEETINGS.

HYMNS

TO THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS CELEBRATION, NEW YEAR'S EVE.

Pray ye the Lord: for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant; and praise is comely.—Psalm 147.

BURE, BRITANNIA.

When Britain first, at heaven's command,
Arose outt the震ous main,
This was the charter, the charter of the land,
And guardian angels sung the strain—
Rule, Britannia!

Britannia rule the waves,
Britons never shall be slaves

The nations not so blessed as this,
Must in their trials to tyrants fall,
Whist their chief British grand and free,
The dread and envy of them all.
Rule, Britannia, &c.

Still more majestic shall thou rise,
More glorious from each foreign stroke;
At the loud blast which rends the skies,
Serves but to root thy native oak.
Rule, Britannia, &c.

These haughty tyrants ne'er shall tame;
All their attempts to beat the down
Will but arouse thy generous flame—
But work their woe and thy renown.
Rule, Britannia, &c.

To thee belongs the mighty sign,
Only cities and empires can shine;
And when thy banner is displayed,
No nation dares to stand by.
Rule, Britannia, &c.

Onward, ye sons of Britain, be found,
To the world your banner to spread,
Crowned with victory, and fair.

SONG OF PRAISE.

HYMN 76. CHILDREN'S HYMN BOOK.
Come let us join one cheerful song,

THE PROMISED LAND.

HYMN 25. CHILDREN'S HYMN BOOK.
There is a land of pure delight.

THE HAPPY LAND.

There is a happy land,
Far, far away,
Where saints in glory stand,
Bright, bright as day.
Oh, how they sweetly sing,
Worthy audience, worthy King;
Lord let thy praises ring,
Praise, praise, give I.
Come to this happy land;
Come, come, come,
Why will ye doubtful stand?
Why will ye wait?
Oh, we shall happy be,
When, from sin and sorrow free,
Lord, we shall live like these;
Hallelujah! for ye are.
Bright in that happy land,
Reams every day,
Kept by a Father's hand,
Love cannot die.
On then to glory run;
Be a crown and kingdom won;
And bright above the sun,
We'll reign for e'e!

THE BIBLE.

We won't give up the BIBLE,
God's holy book of truth,
The blessed staff of hoary age,
The guide of early youth:
The sun that sheds a glorious light
Over every dreary road;

The voice that speaks a Saviour's love,
And calls us back to God;
We won't give up the BRAVE,
Nor pleasure, nor pain,
We'll buy the truth, and sell it not
For all that we may gain.
Though man may try to seize our prize,
And rob us by their might,
Yet well defend their mortal power,
And God defend the right!

We won't give up the BRAVE,
We'll shout far and wide,
Until the echo shall be heard
Beyond the Yelling side;
Till all shall know that we, tho' young,
Withstand such treacherous art,
And that from God's own sacred word
We'll never, never part.

THE GOSPEL SHIP.

The gospel ship along is sailing,
Bound for Canaan's peaceful shore;
Come, and welcome, we and poor
"Glory, glory, Hallelujah!"
All her sailors kindly cry,
"We're the peasant sons of earth,
Open to each faithful eye."
Thousands sail, each safely landed,
Far beyond this mortal shore;
Thousands still are sailing in her,
Yet there's room for thousands more.
"Glory, glory, Hallelujah!"

Wait along this noble vessel,
All ye gales of general grace;
Carrying every faithful sailor
To his heavenly landing place.
"Glory, glory, Hallelujah!"

Come, poor sinners, come, come,
Sail with us thro' life's dark sea;
Then with us you shall be happy,
Happy through eternity.
"Glory, glory, Hallelujah!"

HYMN 20. CHILDREN'S HYMN BOOK.
Jesus shall reign where'er the sun.

ANNIVERSARY HYMNS.

From year to year in love we meet,
From year to year in peace we stay,
The tongues of children uttering sweet
The bosom joy of every heart.
But time rolls on, and year to year,
We change, grow up, or pass away;
Not twice the same assembly here,
Have half'd the children's fatal day.
Meanwhile one falling ranks renew,
Send children teachers to our place,
More humble, docile, faithful, true,
More like thy Son—sum time to race.

THE HEAVENLY REST.

My rest is in heaven, my rest is not here,
Then why should I murmur when trials are near?
Be it hushed my dark spirit, the worst that can come,
But shorten thy journey, and hasten thy home,
Home, home, sweet, sweet home,
Receive me, my dear Saviour,
In glory at home.

It is not for me to be seeking my bliss,
And building my hopes in a region like this;
Look for a city which hands have not pl'd,
I yearn for a country by sin unbuild'd.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home, &c.
Let doubt, then, or danger my progress oppose,
They only make heaven more sweet at the close.
Come joy, or come woe, what'er may befall,
One hour with my God will make up for it all.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home, &c.

YOU BRIGHT WORLD.

TEACHERS.
Children, will you go with me
To you bright world?

Glory, Hallelujah!
Praise Him, Hallelujah!
Praise ye the Lord!

CHILDREN.
Yes, we'll go along with you
To you bright world.
Glory, Hallelujah, &c.

TEACHERS AND CHILDREN.
We shall see our Saviour there,
In you bright world.
Glory, Hallelujah, &c.

CHILD'S DESIRE.
HYMN 67. CHILDREN'S HYMN BOOK.
I think when I read that sweet story of old.

THE CHILDREN'S THANKS.

Hail! Hail! all Hail!
To those who are in this hall;
Whose liberal bounty never doth fail
When sacred duty calls.
A song of grateful praise,
Our voices spread around,
To those who open wide the way,
Where learning's fruitful wreath are found.
Hail! Hail! &c.

The Bible's sacred page
They give unto our youth,
To cheer us in our averse age,
And guide to joy and truth.
Hail! Hail! &c.

Kind patrons and true friends,
Where'er your feet may roam,
Our hearts lift prayer to God's ascended
To bless you and your home.
Hail! Hail! &c.

THEME. NATIONAL ANTHEM.
God save our gracious Queen.

The Ministers and Friends of the Schools.

Affectionately invite the Parents and Friends of the Children, Past and Present, School to attend the above-named Festival, and, by their presence, give that encouragement which is so much wanted in the conducting of a Sabbath School.
