WEEK OF OPERA IS INAUGURATED

La Gioconda Sung by Renowned Artists Who Were Given Enthusiastic Reception.

(Special to The Toronto World)

OTTAWA, Jan. 26.—The bribery charges in the Legislature of Quebec show the situation there to be full of dynamite. So is the newspaper and municipal situation of Montreal, and a surprising number of persons in both cities are now rushing clear of the explosions, when they go off. But it does not end there. All the politicians here in Ottawa are at full tension over the coming revelations.

The above verdict was returned last night by Coroner Singer's jury, which enquired into the circumstances surrounding the death of MacPherson, who was squeezed between two cars, which were being placed in the barns. According to the evidence submitted, the accident occurred in the following manner: There were three cars standing in line, waiting to be placed in the barns, when the first was obliged to back up in order to get clear of the switch. Before doing this it was necessary for the second car to reverse, and upon a signal from the shedman the motorman of the second car, W. W. Henry, did so, without a further signal from his conductor, with the result that MacPherson and his conductor, Johnston, who were in the act of putting up the fender of their car, were squeezed between the two cars. MacPherson died of his injuries, and Johnston was so severely injured that he had to be brought to the hospital on a stretcher. Henry, the motorman on the second car, is now under arrest on a charge of manslaughter. It being claimed that Henry should have waited for a signal from his conductor before backing up, and that Gilbert was responsible for the proper placing of cars in the yards, Gilbert is held for criminal negligence.

The former was inclined to doubt the existence of hard times in Canada. He said the Liberal politicians resembled the man who lost an eye and had a cat's eye substituted for it. Asked how he was getting along, the man responded that "The blamed thing was always looking for rats and mice." The member for Dundas suggested that the Liberals are busy looking for any sign of distress in the hope of finding some party capital.

Two Outstanding Figures.

The story, so far as unfolded or hinted at by those who ought to know, turns for its start on the relations between Sir Hugh Graham of The Montreal Star and Lorne McGibbon, a financier of Montreal, of widespread interests. It certainly turns on newspapers, and it may turn on the street railway and power aspirations of these gentlemen. Graham wanted to dominate the newspaper situation of Montreal. He tried it once before, years ago, when a federal election was pending. He and his mysterious association bought La Presse, and bought an interest of some kind in La Patrie. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was to be overthrown, and the most surprising stories were handed out as to what was to happen. The plot failed, the La Presse was only kept in the service of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his cause at the point of revolvers wielded by his friends in La Presse office. The defection of a dozen supporters and candidates of Sir Wilfrid did not take place. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was returned to power, and later on La Presse went back to its former owner, who is still in possession of it.

The Alki is coming on to Vancouver and is due late tonight. The Sophia is at anchor awaiting the assistance of a salvage steamer from Victoria.

Referring to Mr. Redmond's speech at Waterford on Sunday, he declared: "If this is the last word from his side we are in a lamentable and critical state of affairs. I am a man of peace, but not of peace at any price."

Clearing Sale of Marmot Coats at Dineen's.

Without a doubt the biggest genuine bargain of the season is offered tomorrow at Dineen's, 140 Yonge street. Thirty-seven marmot fur coats, formerly priced from $175 to $200, will be sold at the enormously reduced figure, $125. They are from 48 inches to 52 inches long, designed in the latest style and most appropriate for driving, motoring or wear in the evening. With most of the real cold weather still to come, and the price of this fur rising, the investment should prove highly profitable and entirely safe. Don't fail to inspect.
