

CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTELS—Continued

THE LAKE LOUISE HOTEL.

This quiet resting place in the mountains is situated on the margin of Lake Louise, about two miles distant from the station at Laggan, from which there is a good carriage drive, and is an excellent vantage point for tourists and explorers desiring to see the lakes and the adjacent scenery at their leisure.

The rates are $3.00 per day and upwards. Apply to MANAGER, Mount Stephen House, Field, B.C.

MOUNT STEPHEN HOUSE.

Is a pretty chalet-like hotel, recently enlarged, fifty miles west of Banff to Kicking Horse Canyon, at the base of Mount Stephen, the chief peak of the Rockies, towering 8,000 feet above. This is a favorite place for tourists, mountain climbers and artists, and sport is plentiful. Emerald Lake, one of the most picturesque mountain waters, being within easy distance. The newly-discovered Yoho Valley is reached from Field.

The rates are $3.00 per day and upwards.

EMERALD LAKE CHALET.

Is a Swiss Chalet, situated on the margin of Emerald Lake, near Field, and affords splendid accommodation for those wishing to remain at the lake, or who intend visiting the famous Yoho Valley, to which excellent trails lead from this point.

The rates are from $1.00 per day upwards.

GLACIER HOTEL.

Is situated in the heart of the Selkirks, within thirty minutes' walk of the Great Glacier which covers an area of about thirty-eight square miles.

The hotel, which has recently been enlarged several times to accommodate the ever-increasing travel, is in a beautiful amphitheatre surrounded by lofty mountains, of which Sir Donald, rising 8,000 feet above the railway, is the most prominent. The dense forests all about are filled with the tops of restless brooks which will irresistibly attract the trout fisherman, and the hunter for large game can have his choice of "big horns, mountain goats, grizzly and mountain bears." The main point of interest, however, is the great glacier. One may safely climb upon its wrinkled surface or penetrate its water-worn caves.

The rates are $3.00 per day and upwards.

HOTEL RIVIERE ST. ORE.

at Revelstoke, B.C., in the basin of the Columbia between the Selkirk and the Gold ranges, and a gateway to the West Kootenay mining region. The hotel is perched on a mountain bench directly above the railway station, and is surrounded on all sides by majestic mountains. Immediately opposite the hotel, and fifteen miles away, lies the Bugle Glacier, one of the grandest in British Columbia, amongst the highest peaks.

The rates are $3.00 per day and upwards.

HOTEL SICAMOUS.

at Sicamous, B.C., a fine new structure, built on the shores of the Shuswap Lakes, where the Okanagan branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway leads south to the Okanagan Valley and the contiguous mining country. The hotel is handsomely furnished and has all modern appointments and conveniences. A houseboat for sportsmen and tourists can be obtained here.

Rates, $3.00 per day and upwards.

THE ERASER CANON HOUSE,

at North Bend, 130 miles east of Vancouver, is situated on the Fraser River, and is managed with the same attention to the comfort of its patrons that pervades all branches of the Company's service. The scenery along the Fraser River is well described as "fervorous," and the hotel is a comfortable base from which to explore.

Rates, $3.00 per day and upwards.

HOTEL VANCOUVER,

at Vancouver, B.C., is the Pacific Coast terminus of the Railway. This magnificent hotel, now being enlarged, is designed to accommodate the large commercial business of the place, as well as the great number of tourists who always find it profitable and interesting to make here a stop of a day or two. It is situated in the centre of the city, and from it there is a glorious outlook in every direction. Its accommodations and service are perfect in every detail, and excel those of the best hotels in Eastern Canada or the United States.

Rates $3.00 per day and upwards.

Inquiries as to accommodation, rates, etc., at any of the Canadian Pacific Hotels will be promptly answered by addressing Managers of the different hotels, or communicating direct to
