

PRESS NOTICES

OF THE

MOST RECENT NUMBERS OF THE "PRESENT DAY TRACTS."

No. 72. Christ's Doctrine of Prayer. By the Rev. R. McCHEYNE EDGAR, M.A., D.D. 4d.

"The great feature of Dr. Edgar's little work is the admirable method which he has adopted. . . . The whole argument is thoughtful and suggestive."—Record.

"The book is done so well, the argument is so cogent, and the style so clear, that it can hardly fail to be one of the most useful of the series."

Cornwall Gazette.

"Christ's Doctrine of Prayer is a fine contribution to the study of this weighty topic. Written with a view to meet and refute the cultured scepticism of the day, it is necessarily argumentative and philosophical. . . . We cordially commend its study."—Word and Work.

No. 73. Life and Immortality brought to Light by Christ. By the Rev. W. WRIGHT, D.D. 4d.

"A most able and comprehensive little treatise, clear and lucid in its reasoning upon the question of the resurrection. Every doubter should have a copy placed in his hands."—Baptist.

"Succinct and pointed, this essay illustrates doctrine by history, and sets forth in brief the sure warrant of the Christian faith. This little book of sixty-four pages is calculated to do much more effective service against agnosticism and other forms of unbelief than are many more pretentious and bulky works. It is instructive and evidential in substance, plain and untechnical in style, and eminently loyal to Holy Writ."—Christian.

"Dr. Wright's Tract is a worthy addition to the Present Day Tracts. His account of the admissions of modern science, as represented by its most authoritative expounders, and of the ideas regarding the future prevalent in the ancient heathen world is clear and valuable."—Presbyterian.

No. 74. Heredity and Personal Responsibility. By the Rev. M. KAUFMANN, M.A. 4d.

"The Tract is both valuable and timely."—London Quarterly Review.

"Mr. Kaufmann does not appear for the first time in this very useful and practical series, and his present effort is true to the character of his previous work. That he knows the literature of his subject goes without saying. . . . The pamphlet is distinctly helpful."—Record.

"One of the ablest and most notable of an able and notable series of tracts. . . . Mr. Kaufmann has compressed into the very narrow space at his disposal a lucid and closely-reasoned case, and he supports his argument by a critical examination of the works of Darwin, Weismann, Herbert Spencer, Martineau, Zola, and other writers."—Birmingham Gazette.

"It is an able essay, and the aim is thus summarised by the author: 'Granted heredity, responsibility is not destroyed, because in the interior forces which regulate a man's life there is enough to counteract inborn tendencies, and the grace of God is sufficient to conquer them.'"—Christian.
