

Horacitus, quoted, 28; philosophy of, 91
 Herodotus quoted, 8
 Herondas, novels of, 82
 Hesiod, poetry of, 27
 Hieroglyphic paintings considered, 3, 5, 7; Aztec manuscripts, 13-15; limitations of, 37
 Higgins, Godfrey, on the origin of Christianity, 139
 Hindn invasions, 71
 Holland (see Dutch Empire), Germany's policy towards, 222-224
 Homer, controversy on the authorship of the works of, 145-148, 248
 Homeric Epics, perfection of, 79
 Hong-Kong, English strong position of, 73
 Houtman, learns information for weathering the Cape, 65; voyages of, 66
 Hugo, Victor, poetry of, 86
 Humbert, Thérèse, frauds of, 177
 Hungary, educational system in, 108; effect of Calvinism in, 114; status of Jews in, 186; benefit of Catholicism in, 201, 217
 Hymettus, beehives of, 25

I

"Idyls of the King," Tennyson's, compared with medieval poems, 89
 Incas, ancient civilization of the, 17-19
 India, Dutch possessions in, 67; rise and growth of England's Empire of, 70-72; population of, 288
 Indian Companies, Dutch, 66; English chartered, 70
 Indies, trade to the, 65
 Inkermann, Russian losses at the battle of, 194
 Intellectual progress discussed, 76-94; its effect on a nation, 97, 101-105; causee of the development of, 105-107; Continental education, 107-110
Iphigenia in Aulis, 79
 Italy discussed, most gifted nation, 159-161; women of, 161; geographical advantages of, 162; its disadvantages, 161-163; its navy, 239

J

Jahrbuch, described, 210, 211
 Jansenists, 130
 Java taken by the Dutch, 67
 Jeanne d'Arc, personality of, 152
 Jena, battle of, its effect on Germany, 98
 Jephthah, his victory over the Ammonites, 23
 Jerusalem, civilization of, considered, 23
 "John Company," policy of, 70
 Joubert, 122
 Jesuits, The, the rise, growth, and influence of, 115-120; personality of, 151
 Jesus Christ, personality of, 150, 153
 Jew, The, considered, 121-128; commercial importance of, in Slav countries, 186

K

Kaifa, reduction of, 58
 Kaiser, the, quoted, 212
 "Kalevala," celebrated Finnish epic, 86
 Kant, philosophy of, 91
 Kurr, Alphonse, quoted, 252
 Kelvin, Lord, scientific investigations of, 93
 Key West, American naval base at, 73
 Khitan subdued by Gengiz Khan, 54
 Kublai Khan, 56
 Kunersdorf, Russian losses at, 194

L

Labouddonnais, his opposition to English advance in India, 71
 "La Dame aux Camélias," 173
 Langres, disturbances of, 233
 "Laokoon," by Lessing, 166
 Laon, disturbances of, 233