

Evening Prayer.

who hast commanded us to love our Enemies, and to pray for them which despitefully use us, have mercy, we beseech Thee, upon our Adversaries in the present war. Deliver them from the guilt of injustice, of ambition, and of blood; and dispose their hearts to equity and peace. Visit them, we pray Thee, with thy Spiritual Blessings; with reverence for thy Holy Name, thy Word, and Ordinances; and grant them to grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and in all charity and godliness of living. Let all mutual offences, and hatred be removed from our minds: and grant that, being reconciled one to another, we may unite in striving to exalt and magnify thy glorious Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the Prayer for all Sorts and Conditions of Men;—and the General Thanksgiving.

¶ A Prayer of St. Chrysostom.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us Grace at this time, with one accord, to make our common supplications unto Thee; and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in Thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of Thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of Thy truth, and in the world to come, life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. XIII. 14.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.
