

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Canada much needed to learn—Prospects of Confederation brighten—Stirring events in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick—High-handed course of Lieutenant-Governor Gordon—Both Legislatures adopt Union resolutions—The Fenian Raid—General O'Neill and his forces cross to Fort Erie—Battle of Ridgeway—The Fenians ignominiously scuttle—First and last meeting of the Provincial Parliament at Ottawa—Threatened rupture between Lord Monck and his advisers—Mr. Dorion's motion—A dangerous precedent—The Union at last in sight.....	309

CHAPTER XXVII

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT PASSES THE UNION ACT

The Atlantic cable finally successful—Its history—Queen Victoria congratulates President Johnson—Important Union banquet at Hamilton—The final struggle over Confederation now shifts to England—The Colonial Conference in London—Drafting the British North America Act—Nominated life Senators not favoured by Lord Carnarvon—Mr. Macdonald overruled by the Earl of Derby, Prime Minister, in regard to the name "Kingdom of Canada"—Hon. Joseph Howe tries to prevent the British Parliament passing the Confederation Act—His inconsistency—Hon. Dr. Tupper champions the Union cause—The great measure founding a new nation, composed of one-half the whole North American Continent, passes Parliament with little debate or attention	327
---	-----

CHAPTER XXVIII

PREMIER MACDONALD FORMS HIS CABINET

Queen Victoria graciously receives Messrs. Macdonald, Cartier, Galt, Tupper and Tilley at Windsor—The colonial delegates return home much elated—Lord Monck chosen to be the first Governor-General—He informs the Hon. John A. Macdonald that he would entrust him with the formation of the first Dominion Cabinet—Patronage so vast as to be almost dazzling—The Conservative leader proposes to extend the Coalition to the whole Dominion—Hon. George Brown raises the standard for party government—Messrs. Howland, Macdougall and Blair agree to join the new Coalition—Reform Convention called to consider the situation—The new Premier finds unexpected difficulties in forming his Cabinet	341
---	-----