There are two periods in a woman's Mre when her friends are vastly inter-ested in her age-when she marries and when she dies. The report of the registrar general's report for 1910 for the province goes rather deeply into some of these figrather deeply into some of these fig-ures, and while all the secrets are not tartier deeply into some of these fig-ures, and while all the secrets are not disc'osed, yet there is some interesting information in its pages. With regard to the age at which persons marry it is of interest to learn, so far as On-tario is concerned, that men do not marry at a later date than women, altho it is popularly thought other-wise, to any great extent. Last year field grooms, or about one-third of the total number, married between the ages of 20 and 24, while 47 per cent. or nearly one-half, the women who en-tered into the bonds of metrimony were between those ages.
