Wookey's Wonderful Bowling Almost Defeats Toronto C.C.

Rosedale Loses City League Game by One Wicket— Pull to Leg for Four Changes Defeat into Vic- tory.

After an exciting finish, a weak Rosedale team was defeated by Toronto, the undefeated champions of "A" section of the City League, by one wicket. Rosedale won the toss and elected to bat on a wicket that was calculated to increase in difficulty under the influence of the sun. Reid and Baines bowled from the north end and Rathbun from the pavilion end. After the morning rain the wicket proved easy as regards play, but difficult to score upon. Strokes that would usually have produced a boundary were rarely responsible for singles. Reid placed Seagram cleverly to leg for a brace, and a single thru the slips sent up. With the score 12, Baines played in a good ball from Rathbun, and was clear bowled, letting H. W. Wookey in. The left-hander commenced by placing Seagram cleverly to leg for two, and followed with a fine drive to the right-hand corner. Reid was playing his favorite leg stroke to good advantage. The score was taken to 22 when H. W. Wookey bowled Rathbun, and the left-hander joined Reid. Without any addition to the score, Reid was unfortunately run out, thus making him a reputation for being run out or being out. When apparently set for a good score, Captain Wookey bowled Rathbun, who pulled Rathbun finely to the on boundary, and placed the following ball behind the wicket also for four.

Wookey Yorked.
At 30 Captain Wookey was out to a " Yorker," which curled with the wind, and Dunbar came in for two, and Toronto's amount of work on the ball, certain bowling his fastest. Levin pulled Rathbun round to leg for four, and sending up 40 and making his own score 26. Two runs later, Rathbun gave way to Davidson and Henderson took up the attack vice Seagram. When he was 21 Levin gave an easy chance at first wicket off Henderson, who was keeping a good length, and proved difficult to get away. At length Levin pulled Davidson to leg for a couple, but at 53 Dunbar was caught at short slip by Seagram off Henderson, and Dean came in.

Levin signalled the advent of Dean and Lowmabrough sent up the 40 with a lovely drive along the carpet for two. At 53 Henderson gave a chance off the bat caught off Wookey, Dunbar being the offender. With a single off Baines Lowmabrough sent the 50 up, and at this time the batsmen adopted aggressive tactics. Dunbar was introduced in the attack at 54, and with two runs added Henderson was caught in the slips off the new bowler, letting in Hynes. Reid resumed the attack at the north end, and Captain Wookey at the pavilion end. Hynes was in difficulties early on, and at 61 he was clean bowled by Wookey.

The Excitement.
With 21 runs still required for victory and four wickets to fall, Seagram joined in a captain, and Dunbar relieved Reid. Seagram was telegraphed, and two runs later Lowmabrough's leg-wicket was struck by Wookey, and Leighton came in when ten were required to win. Reid was tried again for the third time, but Captain Wookey met with further success, Seagram being dismissed at 75, letting in McCaffrey. Two singles were added when McCaffrey was bowled by Reid, and Rathbun arrived. Leighton was bowled off his pads by Reid at the same score, and the last man, Neill, joined Rathbun, with seven runs required. Captain Wookey's fine bowling had altered a probable Toronto victory into a possible Rosedale triumph, and an exciting finish was provided for the spectators.

Winning Tactics.
The batsmen manoeuvred in order that Neill should not be bowled. Rosedale's tactics were that Reid should bowl his fastest and keep down the run-getting, one of Wookey's specials should do the trick. Three singles were added, and then Neill with a pull to leg for four off Wookey, snatched the game out of the fire, and thus enabled Toronto to maintain their unbeaten certificate. Wookey had the fine bowling average of six for 53, and his accurate and accurate bowling, the best slow bowler in Toronto. He keeps a perfect length, can break a ball either way, and is a bowler who is not easily most disconcerting to the unsuspecting batsman.
